Comment From the venerable stable of past Clayvin Pinots this 2011 augments the style's refinement. A rich and dense wine with underlying finesse. Showing black cherry and blueberry aromas that mix with a lightly toasted mocha quality. The palate is full and concentrated with a hint of spicy fruit. Silken in texture there's ample fruit weight harmonising with the present but layered tannins. Power and elegance all in one.

Short description Wild berry and spicy fruit aromas, dense and concentrated, silky texture with ripe tannin support backed by ample fruit weight. (June 2013)
