Comment On the nose the wine shows aromas associated with wild, red forest berries, bright and intense. The medium weight palate has nice balance, elegance and good length. It is a flavourful Pinot Noir with well measured tannin support and a gentle, earthy complexity. This wine will greatly benefit from 1-2 years of bottle age.

Short description Medium weight Pinot Noir, fine balance, elegance and length with flavours of red forest berries and an underlying earthy complexity.
