Comment A structural Sauvignon Blanc with precision and purity. We strive for a ripe, dry expression of Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc that provides all the vibrancy one expects from the region ... yet subtlety reigns here. The 2015 vintage gave us natural fruit density that meant no residual sweetness was necessary. Showing bright star fruit and Meyer lemon characters initially, it soon reveals an intriguing spice element (star anise). There is a defining flintstone minerality that pulls everything together into a precise linear package.

Short description Generous ripe fruit with flinty minerality. Subtle complexity and texture, great purity, harmonious crisp finish (August 2015)
