Comment	The cool 1997 vintage produced wines of deep colour, pronounced varietal character, real concentration without becoming fat or jammy and excellent structure and cellaring potential. This Syrah has all of that, distinct white pepper aromas, a full-on lively palate of intense fruit, big but not heavy and with a firm, long finish.
Short description	Vibrant cool climate Syrah with classic white pepper aromas. Fine concentration, very stylish. (Mai 1999)
