Human Rights

Policy statement

At Response Technical Services Ltd, we are committed to protecting the human rights of everyone who works here, and all those who receive a direct or indirect service from us. As a responsible, ethical organisation, we fully support the principles of the Human Rights Act and all associated legislation.

We recognise that our responsibility for human rights encompasses:

- we will uphold the human rights of all employees, visitors and contractors at our offices
- it is our aspiration to ensure that working conditions meet internationally accepted standards of human rights and working conditions

This policy statement has been developed with reference to the following documents:

- The Human Rights Act 1998
- The Modern Slavery Act 2015
- The Ethical Trading Initiative Base Code

Key principles

Child labour.

We will not employ workers under the legal minimum age for work as stipulated by the Employment Act 2008.

Forced labour.

We will not make use of any forced labour or debt-bondage labour in accordance with the Modern Slavery Act 2015.

Discrimination.

We will not discriminate against any person based on their protected characteristics, and will uphold Article 14 of the Human Rights Act 1998 in respect of protection from discrimination.

Discipline

We will not employ, or allow to be employed, any form of corporate punishment, physical coercion or verbal abuse. Any disciplinary matter will be dealt with through formal procedures.

Working hours

Working time directives will be adhered to as per the Working Time Regulations 1998

Wages paid for standard working hours will meet or exceed national minimum wage or living wage levels as appropriate.
