Workplace trends are constantly changing, which is why the 10500 Series is built to adapt as needs change. The versatile design creates a wide variety of layout options, from private offices to large open spaces. Wall mount cabinets and shelves help maximize footprints, while modular storage options allow users to customize their work environment. With this versatility and an expansive collection of laminate finishes, it's easy to see how the 10500 Series offers more of what a business needs, for less than expected.
