SOME PEOPLE CALL IT A MIRACLE, WE CALL IT AWAKENING!

My name is Dr. Allan Phillips, I am an Osteopathic Physician, I would like to take a minute or two to introduce you to one of the finest, most efficacious nutritional products I have ever used in my practice. In fact it is, in my opinion, a safe alternative to many of the Energy Drinks being sold in America today.

Over the years hundreds of health professionals have also discovered what this amazing product can do.

I was introduced to Awakening a few years ago when an excited patient of mine informed me of it. Obviously, I was skeptical. I used the product in my practice and the results I observed were amazing. I was quite surprised, as were many of my patients when they discovered the amazing benefits of a new and exciting technology called Awakening.

The benefits were so profound that the first thing that went through my mind was, this must be another aggressive stimulant loaded with ephedra, sugar or anhydrous caffeine. I was happy to discover this was not the case. Oxygen Nutrition had created an affordable, nutrient dense, natural formulation that provided all-day energy without the addictive side effects, associated with many energy products being sold.

Awakening works because it is rich in the finest source of plant-sourced, trace minerals combined with top of the line botanicals and it contains no sugar.

Awakening works because it contains guaranine, a naturally occurring substance similar to caffeine without the crash. All you feel is this wonderful feeling of health, well-being and an abundance of energy.

The ionic minerals come from 3 different, ancient plant deposits located throughout the U.S. These are the purest and richest source of highly absorbable, pre-historic, plant derived minerals in the world.

Perhaps what sets Awakening apart from other nutritional supplements is Awakening contains ingredients that ensure long lasting energy without the side effects associated with all those potentially harmful energy drinks available on the market today.

The products that Oxygen Nutrition offers are uniquely different! You can find similar products in most any grocery store, health food store or pharmacy, or should I say similar in name and description. What you can't see is what's inside the vegetable capsules or how the active ingredients are selected and blended. Awakening is rich in plant-sourced, ionic trace minerals and has a specific blend of active enzymes engineered to transport precious nutrients to where they should go.

Oxygen Nutrition's products are unique and different; as they are constantly in pursuit of raw materials that will enrich people's lives. Awakening and all other Oxygen Nutrition products contain only premium Grade I and Grade II botanicals. These products have primarily been sold through Doctors' Offices, Chiropractic Clinics, Massage Therapist Centers and Sports Medicine Facilities throughout Australia, New Zealand, England, South Africa, Japan and the United States. They are not your traditional "run-of-the-mill" products, instead they are targeted, specialized therapeutic modalities, formulated and designed using rigorous standards demanded by health professionals.

Awakening has been the flagship product and it has been sold throughout the world safely for over 20 years. Over a 90 million capsules have been sold. After 20 years the company still continues to receive many wonderful Awakening testimonials. The most overwhelming comment they still get from health professionals is, "Awakening is Amazing!"

I enthusiastically recommend Awakening to you as I do to each one of my patients. If you want to feel better than ever before in your life, experience Awakening today.
