KADION PRESTON
Founder and CEO

sonicloop yahoo!

Prior to Caribshopper, Kadion served as Co-Founder and Chief Technology Officer at tech company Sonicloop Networks, a full-service technology development firm serving medium to large-scale corporations. He developed applications to unify end-to-end client processes. That experience and his connection to Jamaica motivated him to launch Caribshopper to bring Caribbean culture closer to those living abroad.

An immigrant himself, Kadion is a 2018 Atlanta Techstars Graduate and holds a degree in Computer Engineering from Hunter College. Kadion's technology tenure spans decades of providing solutions for various industries from Wall Street to Healthcare, including Spectrum Capital Partner, TD Waterhouse, Plaza Health Network, and Yahoo. He also sits as Board Chair of the Miami Dade Trade & Logistics Committee. Kadion is an international speaker who has been featured in the Jamaica Gleaner and The Business Journals and on CEEN TV, Caribbean Power Lunch, First Atlantic Commerce, The Caribbean Edge, and Island Fever +.