

MARK TABOR
Head of Logistics

Mark Tabor is the Logistics Lead at Caribshopper. With more than 32 working in supply-chain management with big shipping companies, including UPS, Mark has experience in Logistics Strategy, Marketing, and Sales. Before joining the Caribshopper team, he served as VP of Strategy for UPS America's Region, based in Miami, and was responsible for the Caribbean, South and Central America, Mexico, and Canada operations.

Mark has extensive knowledge in logistics strategy and strategic planning focused on quality revenue growth. He now supports the Caribshopper team to consistently improve its customer service through high-quality delivery processes and execution.