

Privacy Policy

- We may collect website visitors' contact information (like their e-mail addresses). This information may be used:
 - (a) to send news, information about our activities and general promotional material which we believe may be useful to you, where you have opted in to receive such material;
 - (b) to monitor who is accessing the website or using services offered on the website; and
 - (c) to profile the type of people accessing the website.
- If you do not wish to have your personal information used in this manner or for any other specific purpose, you can e-mail us accordingly.
- We utilise "cookies" which enable us to monitor traffic patterns and to serve you more efficiently if you revisit the site. A cookie does not identify you personally but it does identify your computer. You can set your browser to notify you when you receive a cookie and this will provide you with an opportunity to either accept or reject it in each instance.
- We will not sell or otherwise provide your personal information to a third party, or make any other use of your personal information, for any purpose which is not incidental to your use of this website. For the removal of doubt, personal information will not be used for any purpose which a reasonable person in your position would not expect.
- If you request us not to use personal information in a particular manner or at all, we will adopt all reasonable measures to observe your request but we may still use or disclose that information if:
 - (a) we subsequently notify you of the intended use or disclosure and you do not object to that use or disclosure;
 - (b) we believe that the use or disclosure is reasonably necessary to assist a law enforcement agency or an agency responsible for government or public security in the performance of their functions; or
 - (c) we are required by law to disclose the information.
- We will preserve the content of any e-mail you send us if we believe we have the legal requirement to do so.
- Your e-mail message content may be monitored by us for trouble-shooting or maintenance purposes or if any form of e-mail abuse is suspected.
- Personal information which we collect may be aggregated for analysis but in such circumstances we would ensure that individuals would remain anonymous.
- All personal information which we collect including your contact details, is kept confidential to the best of our ability. You will appreciate, however, that we cannot guarantee the security of transmission.
- We consider it is the responsibility of parents to monitor their children's use of our website. Nevertheless it is our policy not to require personal information from persons known to be under the age of 18 years or offer to send any promotional material to persons in that category.
- You are entitled to have access to any personal information relating to you which you have previously supplied to us over this website. You are entitled to edit or delete such information unless we are required by law to retain it.
- If you wish to comment on or query our privacy policy, or if you wish to make an inquiry regarding any personal information relating to you which may be in our possession, contact us on sales@nzazz.nz
- Yes, we want you to have a safe and secure shopping experience. The password you provide should be unique to you and kept secure (we can't see your password), and you must notify us immediately of any breach of security or unauthorized use of your account. You can help to protect your details from unauthorised access, by logging out each time you finish using the site, particularly if you are doing so from public or shared computer.
- All payments are implemented by Direct Payment Solutions Limited (DPS). For more information about DPS visit: www.paymentexpress.com/about You are connected directly to DPS through defined ports and servers using SSL (Secure Socket Layers), and 256 bit encryption to protect your data. DPS payments process is PCI compliant and all card data is encrypted and securely stored. As NZAZZ eStore is not involved in the payment process we do not receive or hold any details of your credit or debit cards and/or bank account.
