JOHN ALLEN, ALLEN RACING ENGINES JOINS TOPP PERFORMANCE RACE PARTS

Rochester, IN – TOPP Performance Race Parts (TPRP) is proud to announce the addition of John Allen and Allen Racing Engines to its growing portfolio of experienced leaders and brands. Allen brings 20 years of industry and engine building experience.

Since 1992, Allen has been working in the racing industry with a specialized focus on engine building in modified race cars. In 2009, Allen founded Allen Racing Engines, and has been assembling award-winning engines for drivers year after year. Allen has built engines for two of the top five drivers in the nation for the UMP DIRTcar Series for back to back years, competing against an estimated 3,000 other drivers. He has placed in the top five on the engine builders win list consistently on a national level, with numerous track championships on a local level. Currently, Allen has drivers running his engines in the UMP DIRTcar Series that are winning in the Northern Indiana region, Deep South region and standing fourth in national points. for South East Dirt Modified Series.

“I’m thrilled to be joining the TOPP Performance Race Parts team,” said Allen. “Joining TOPP and bringing Allen Racing Engines with me is an exciting next step for the Allen Racing Engine brand,” finished Allen.

With Allen joining the TOPP Performance Race Parts team, he’ll be bringing Allen Racing Engines and his portfolio of award winning customers with him. TOPP Performance Race Parts is looking forward to continuing to expand their reach in customers, with Allen’s expertise in modified and street car engines.
