'Made for Heaven' Closing Reception
Staunton, Virginia
Friday, April 26, 2019

Dixon Studio will host a closing reception for the show 'Made For Heaven on Friday, April 26 from 5:30-7:30pm at the Gallery at 323 N. Central Avenue in Staunton.

The event showcases the work of renowned liturgical artist Ronald Neill Dixon. Best known for his stained glass windows installed in churches across the country, this gallery exhibition celebrates the saints through stunning works on paper. Ranging from detailed pencil portraits to elaborate ink and marker renderings, the show presents an unusual perspective on historic and modern saints.

Heavenly music, light refreshments, and an opportunity for saintly selfies will be provided.
