

Become a part of the new chapter.... Kitchen Restaurant Staff Wanted

Join the family as this iconic restaurant opens doors with a fresh new feel and offering

If the prospect appeals to work in a beautiful rural environment, work with amazing fresh and seasonal produce and you have a genuine passion for food, wine and people, then this fantastic opportunity is for you! While The Hunting Lodge Restaurant is a new venue, it has had many faces over the years and is iconic to the area. Our restaurant looks to provide a wonderful relaxed environment for guests and a great, fun job experience.

We are looking for Permanent and Casual staff for the Kitchen to start at the beginning of November:

Kitchen hands

- Energetic people wanted to wash dishes & fulfill basic kitchen duties.
- No experience needed & the job is perfect for people new to the industry & wanting a start.

Junior cooks / Commis chefs

- Get a head start with your career & work with one of the country's leading chefs Des
- Full training provided
- A passion for food is a must. We are prepared to invest time into people that bring the correct attitude so experience is not as essential.

Line chefs

- Some experience is needed but most of all being willing to learn is vital.
- If you want to be part of a dynamic business & learn up to date techniques & work with great produce then this is the job for you!

Pastry chef assistant

- Work as part of our pastry team baking bread daily, producing pastry & baked goods for the cellar door, producing banqueting desserts & making the finer a la carte desserts for the restaurant.

- The vineyard is lucky to have a very talented Pastry chef & we are looking for 2 junior assistants to help her out. A passion for pastry is a must & full training will be provided.
- We aim to provide full training that includes service, food and wine.

The positions include:

- Good remuneration
- 2 days off a week
- Flexible hours
- Staff meals

You will have:

- Motivation and passion
- A positive, professional attitude
- Your own transport

We are a passionate bunch with a professional work ethic - if you think you would enjoy working here and have what it takes then please apply by sending CV's to des.harris@brix.co.nz