	Blake's Snow Shack from Texas	Cup	Blake Pyron has never been limited. Not by his community, not by his parents, and certainly not by his Down Syndrome. That's why he rolled up his sleeves, stocked up on syrup and opened Blake's Snow Shack for business in 2015. http://www.blakesnowshack.com/
	April's Cottage Soaps from Ohio	Post Card	April started making and painting soaps about six years ago, after discovering that glycerin-goatmilk soaps seemed to help her itchy skin. Soon her hobby became her business. She loves painting the soaps and meeting new friends at craft shows. https://www.etsy.com/shop/AprilsCottage
	Matthew's Bonfire BBQ from Michigan	Post Card and Sticker	Having Down syndrome has never stopped me from pursuing my passion of using food and fire to bring family and friends together. I like to think I've been spicing up life for my family and friends since birth and it's time to spread the love. https://www.bonfirebbq.com/
	Candidly Kind from Georgia	Cinch Bag	Candidly Kind is a clothing and accessories line co-founded March 21, 2018 by Grace Key and her mom Carrie to spread light, love and acceptance. All items feature Grace's original artwork and phrases. A huge part of the candidly kind mission is giving back. We are proud to donate at least 15% of all profits to charity https://www.candidlykind.com/
