SCENE SEVEN

Balthazar We have arrived.

Melchior The baby is here!

Caspar The new born king is here!

Narrator/s The helpers and the camels and the little stars and the sheep were suddenly very excited. Who was this baby?

He must be very special indeed for the kings to want to come all this way to see him.

The big star shone down on the stable and all the little stars watched on.

As Balthazar opened the door of the stable, they could see that the shepherds were inside.

The shepherds didn't even notice when the door opened because they were looking at a manger.

Inside the manger was a beautiful baby boy. His mother Mary watched the little baby as he lay there peacefully in the hay.

Then Joseph her husband spoke.

Joseph Come and see the baby.

Mary He is Jesus, the Son of God.

Narrator/s The helpers and the camels and the little stars and the sheep were amazed at what they saw.

They watched as the kings gave wonderful gifts to the baby Jesus.

Melchior Gold for the new born King.

Caspar Frankincense for the new born king.

Balthazar Myrrh for the new born king.

Narrator/s Everyone now understood why the kings had wanted to follow the bright, enormous star.

For here in the stable, something wonderful had happened.
Jesus, the Son of God, was born.

UNDER A STAR IN BETHLEHEM TOWN

Come and see the baby,
Come to Bethlehem.
You will find him in a stable
In Bethlehem.
Under a star shining down,
Under a star in Bethlehem Town.

Don't waste any time now.
He is born tonight
And he's here for everybody,
He's born tonight.
Under a star shining down,
Under a star in Bethlehem Town.

Look inside the stable.
You will find him there,
Lying in a little manger,
You'll find him there.
Under a star shining down,
Under a star in Bethlehem Town.

Come and see the baby,
Come to Bethlehem.
You will find him in a stable
In Bethlehem.
Under a star shining down,
Under a star in Bethlehem Town.

Under a star shining down,
Under a star in Bethlehem Town.
