Melody	A Burmese cat, sleek, elegant and inquisitive, Melody doesn't suffer fools gladly. Thoughtful and sensitive, nevertheless she is as surprised as anyone to find herself liking a sheep-dog.	73
Chipolata	A Short-Haired Dachshund, Chipolata and his pal Chorizo while away the hours doing very little, but in a friendly way. The smarter of the two, but only just, Chipolata has a quick wit and a keen interest in the simpler things in life.	65
Jack	A sheep-dog of the highest pedigree, clever and energetic, Jack likes nothing better than to round up some cats for a scuffle. Then he meets Melody and his world is turned upside down.	63
Chorizo	Chipolata's sidekick – also a Short-Haired Dachshund – this likeable sausage dog wonders at the world around him whilst missing most of the action. Chatty and inquisitive and full of fun.	62
Cappuccino	Cappuccino-coloured as her name would suggest, she is a plain-talking, street-wise and engaging cat, perfectly happy to make friends with dogs if she chooses regardless of the views of others.	47
Fiesta	The King of Canines, Fiesta leads 'The Wolves' with an easy manner and a sense of fun. Equally, he is no slouch when it comes to putting the cats back in their boxes.	46
Dottie	Melody's best friend, Dottie, is a Bengal cat, a straight-talker, a bit rough on the outside, but with a gooey centre. Loyal and not easily ruffled.	30
Sherlock	A Basset-Hound, Sherlock has his ears to the ground (literally) and is a font of knowledge, quick-witted and dignified in manner.	30
Biscuit	Second of the cats, Biscuit takes over when Fury disappears. A stray, Biscuit has to work hard to stay alive, but is fair and kind and open to reason.	29
Diesel	A Bombay cat, Diesel and his friend Smokey are sociable beings. A good job too, seeing as they end up in The Pound and have to work with dogs (much to their initial distaste) to escape.	28
Smokey	Smokey is a cat who is always in the thick of things. From the first scene where he takes on the Dachshunds, to his capture and escape from The Pound, Smokey likes nothing more than the life-less-ordinary.	28
Snowflake	A Persian Longhair, Snowflake is one of the group of female cats who enjoy nothing more than a gossip and a make-over. She does not respond well to Melody showing interest in dogs.	25
Fury	Top cat, the Maine Coon 'Fury' rules 'The Lions' with an iron paw. Driven by rage and his hatred of dogs, Fury is fiercely loyal to other cats and a dynamic, powerful leader. Except for when he gets a furball! The part does include two long(ish) speeches.	24
Chantilly	Quick to have an opinion, quick to change her mind and quick to judge, Chantilly is a cat with a sense of fun but she doesn't always think things through.	19
Duchess	Prim and proper, Duchess is always well-groomed but perhaps sets too much store by looks and not enough by what's inside.	18

CHARACTER PROFILES & NUMBER OF LINES

Marmite	A German Pinscher, Marmite is much-loved by other dogs, and much disliked by cats.	18
Carmen	A friendly and popular cat – especially with her mate, Diesel - Carmen has plenty of experience and doesn't suffer fools gladly.	16
Bingo	A cheeky, mischievous little scamp of a Jack Russell, quick to find the humour in any situation.	11
Geoffrey	A Chinchilla, Geoffrey is quirky to say the least, but very loveable really, if a little rotund.	11
Midnight	A black Labrador, Midnight is a sensible and steady influence on the more impulsive dogs around her, especially the males.	11
Bullet	A Greyhound, he is still pretty sharp, but beginning to lose a yard or too of pace. Bullet is always up for adventure, especially when it involves distracting the cats.	9
Grace	An easy-going, gentle Bichon-Frise, Grace would be the first to admit that the idea of fighting a cat ranks similarly to the idea of sleeping in a dog-kennel outside instead of on her human's bed.	7
Bruno	A canine inmate of The Pound. Strong.	7
Taco	A male cat, Taco is a relaxed character with a sharp wit who enjoys the company of others.	7
Salsa	A Chiwawa, Salsa – who still speaks with her original Spanish accent - may be small but she has a big personality and packs quite a punch. She is also the first and only dog to escape from The Pound – until Jack and his pals emulate her feat.	6
Fang	A feline inmate of The Pound. Fierce.	5
Goliath	A Great Dane, Goliath is a big chap to say the least. Friendly and dependable, Goliath tends to eat first and think later.	5
Spike	A feline inmate of The Pound. Sharp.	5
Tank	A canine inmate of The Pound. A Pitbull, and not one to be messed with.	5
Brick	A canine inmate of The Pound. Tough.	4
Leo	A feline inmate of The Pound. Caged and unhappy about it.	4
Nero	A canine inmate of The Pound. Unpredictable.	4
Tiger	A feline inmate of The Pound. Ferocious.	4
Rambo	A feline inmate of The Pound. Adventurous.	3
Tyson	A canine inmate of The Pound. Ruthless. Possibly toothless – literally.	3
