

The Lucky Owl

SCRIPT SAMPLE ONE

(Note - The owl is referred to as 'she' but can be a 'he' if preferred)

Narrator: Under the big golden moon stood a tall, tall tree.
And at the top of the tall, tall tree lived Owl.
Everybody knew Owl was there.
She had round orange eyes that watched and small pointed ears that listened.
And every night, Owl sang her song so that everyone could hear and join in.

SONG 1 - Tu-whit-tu-whoo

1. Tu-whit-tu-whoo, tu-whit-tu-whoo
Tu-whit-tu-whoo, oh, what a to-do!
Everybody's singing from far and wide
Tu-whit, tu-whit-tu-whoo
2. Tu-whit-tu-whoo, tu-whit-tu-whoo
Tu-whit-tu-whoo, oh, what a to-do!
Come on everybody, join in the song!
Tu-whit, tu-whit-tu-whoo
3. Tu-whit-tu-whoo, tu-whit-tu-whoo
Tu-whit-tu-whoo, oh, what a to-do!
Listen to the owl and sing along
Tu-whit, tu-whit-tu-whoo

(Repeat first verse, singing last line twice)

Narrator: Owl liked her home at the top of the tree.
She could see right over the land for miles and miles.
She could see the bats who lived in their cave nearby.

Bats: Eeeeeeeeee.

- Narrator: She could see the squirrels who lived right inside a hollow tree.
- Squirrels: Nibble, nibble, nibble.
- Narrator: She could see the mice who lived in a hole in the wall.
- Mice: Eee, eee, eee.
- Narrator: And she could see all the people who lived in their houses.
- People: We like living in our house.
- Narrator: Everyone had somewhere cosy to live.

SONG 2 - It's Nice To Live In A Cave

1. It's nice to live in a cave
It's nice to live in a cave
Warm and cosy, feet all rosy
It's nice to live in a cave
2. It's nice to live in a tree
It's nice to live in a tree
Warm and cosy, feet all rosy
It's nice to live in a tree
3. It's nice to live in a hole
It's nice to live in a hole
Warm and cosy, feet all rosy
It's nice to live in a hole
4. It's nice to live in a house
It's nice to live in a house
Warm and cosy, feet all rosy
It's nice to live in a house

- Narrator: One evening, as the sun went down, Owl was sitting in the tree and saw someone passing far below. A man was leading a donkey with a beautiful lady on its back. They looked very tired.
