

The Lucky Owl

SCRIPT SAMPLE TWO

- Narrator: Then she called at the hole where the mice lived.
- Mice: Sorry Owl, there's no room in our hole.
- Narrator: Owl went on to Bethlehem where the people lived. She knocked at a door.
- Owl: I'm freezing! Can I stay with you?
- Narrator: But the little house was full.
- People: Sorry Owl, there's no room in our house.
- Narrator: Then Owl saw the man and the beautiful lady again.
- Joseph: (Knocks on the door of the inn. The innkeeper opens the door.)
We're cold and tired.
- Mary: Can we stay with you?
- Innkeeper: Sorry, there's no room at the inn.

SONG 4 -There's No Room in Here

1. Two bats are in their home
In their home, in their home
Snuggled up nice and cosy
There's no room in here
There's no room in here!
2. Four squirrels are in their home
In their home, in their home
Snuggled up nice and cosy
There's no room in here
There's no room in here!

3. Six mice are in their home.....
4. Eight people are in their home.....
5. Ten people are in the inn.....

Narrator:

All the other houses were full too. There was no room anywhere! Owl decided that she would have to fly to get warm. She flew and flew and flew, round and round and round over the rooftops of the village.

SONG 5 - Flying

1. Flying all around underneath the stars
Round and round and round
Underneath the stars

Chorus

Flying through the night sky
Flying way up on high
See the world go by tonight

2. Flying all around underneath the moon
Round and round and round
Underneath the moon

Chorus

3. Flying all around underneath the clouds
Round and round and round
Underneath the clouds

Chorus

Narrator: Soon Owl began to get very tired. As she flew, she saw a giant star in the sky. The star shone down onto a little stable.

As Owl watched, she saw some shepherds go into the stable. They were carrying lambs.

Owl flew down to the stable and looked through the window. There she saw the man and the beautiful lady again and there was a brand new baby lying in a manger!

The shepherds knocked at the door.

Shepherd 1: We've brought some lambs for the baby.

Shepherd 2: Isn't he lovely!
