

Wiz Wham Alakazam

A Magical Musical About Teamwork
And Togetherness by Niki Davies

Script Sample

SCENE FOUR

To create tension, add menace and introduce the baddies, some blue lighting could be used here. Also, a continual, quiet beat on a drum and a beater rolling around the inside of a triangle/s.

Narrator 1 But as the wizards slept, they had forgotten that something dark and threatening lived inside the walls of the castle ...

Narrator 2 Between the cracks of the stones and in the shadows, something was lurking.

Narrator 3 ... an army of horrible creatures that normally slept silently in the enormous walls when everything was warm and light.

Narrator 4 But now that the sun was becoming dimmer and the castle was getting colder, the Ice Creatures were beginning to stir.

Narrator 5 The Ice Creatures had long, icy fingers. One touch was enough to turn a wizard into a block of ice.

Narrator 1 Very slowly, they began to climb from the walls and by early morning they were inside the castle.

The instruments stop as the song begins. The Ice Creatures have a spooky, menacing presence. During the song, they creep slowly towards the wizards. By their second verse 'We're here to freeze your little nose' they are very close. With arms outstretched, they claw at the wizards and can almost touch them. The wizards look frightened and cower.

ICE CREATURES

We are the creatures of the ice,
We're not very nice,
The creatures of the ice.
Now that the sun is growing dim,
We'll begin.

We will freeze you in your beds,
Sending shivers where we tread.

We are the creatures of the ice,
We're not very nice,
The creatures of the ice.
Now that the sun is growing dim,
We'll begin,
The creatures of the ice.

We're here to freeze your little nose
And your little toes
'Cause that's the way it goes.
It's cold with such a gloomy sun,
It's begun.

Just one touch to be precise,
It will turn you into ice.

We're here to freeze your little nose
And your little toes
'Cause that's the way it goes.
It's cold with such a gloomy sun,
It's begun,
And we can have some fun.

As the song comes to an end the wizards leap to their feet, spurred into action.

Chief Wizard        We must light fires immediately! We must drive the Ice Creatures back into the walls before they freeze us all!

Narrator 1        The wizards rushed to light fires in all the rooms of the castle.

The wizards bring some sticks and throw onto a pretend fire made of red and yellow paper.

Narrator 2        And with the fires lit, the evil, frosty Ice Creatures began to retreat, back into the old stone walls.

Wizard Wanda holds a burning torch (made from a stick with yellow and red paper on the end) and points it towards the Ice Creatures.

Wanda                Get back to your walls, before we turn you all into a big puddle!

Ice Creature 1      Down with you wizards!

The Ice Creatures hobble away back to the walls with arms still outstretched towards the wizards, clawing.

Ice Creature 2      (in a loud, icy whisper) We will be back!

Ice Creatures      (echoing) We will be back.
