Photography Intern:

Boston, Fall - Winter (2 months minimum), with possibility to extend

About Adelante: Adelante Shoe Co. is a mission-driven startup that operates without inventory and delivers made-to-order shoes direct-to-consumer within 10 days. Our handmade leather shoes are top-quality at half the price of comparable brands. Since they are made to order, our shoes are size, style, and color customizable. We experientially connect our customers with their craftsman from point of sale to delivery of product, and communicate the positive impact of the customer's purchase.

About the Role: Calling all photographers! We are looking for a part-time photography intern to do a few shoots in the Boston area this fall/winter. This role is perfect for anyone looking to gain experience in fashion or lifestyle photography, and work closely with a mission-driven ethical fashion startup.

Responsibilities: This is an unpaid internship running from October through January with possibility for extension. The position is part time, about 10-20 hours per week. The intern will be responsible for planning and organizing all aspects of the shoot including location, models, and styling. They will work closely with a member of the Adelante founding team.

Contact: Please reach out to julia@adelanteshoes.com with a resume and 1 paragraph description on why you'd be a good fit for the position. We look forward to hearing from you!
