

February 10, 2012

Contact:

Anne Hanson, Community Relations
(605) 753-5372 / anne@joshuaspies.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Joshua Spies Fine Art Contributes to Jim Shockey's Desert Golf Shootout

(Tucson, AZ) - Joshua Spies Fine Art recently donated a piece of his artwork to the Jim Shockey Desert Golf Shootout in Tucson, AZ.

Spies' "Mule Deer" will be sold at auction during the event. Proceeds from the 4th annual event go towards bringing military veterans on all-expense-paid hunts. The event will be held February 11-12.

Jim is an award winning outdoor writer, wildlife photographer, wilderness guide and outfitter. Jim has published more than 1,000 adventure articles, produces videos and hosts his own adventure television show on the Outdoor Channel.

"Mule Deer" was recently featured on a Cabela's gift card.

To view or purchase this and other Joshua Spies' prints, please visit www.JoshuaSpies.com.

##

About Joshua Spies:

Joshua Spies is an international award-winning artist from Watertown, South Dakota. He earned his fine arts degree at South Dakota State University and has traveled the world observing and photographing wildlife. Joshua has been a finalist in the Federal Duck Stamp competition five times and won the competition in 2008. The fall 2006 Wildlife Art Magazine named Joshua one of the top 16 wildlife artists, and Dallas Safari Club announced Joshua Spies as the winner of their prestigious 2007 Artist of the Year. Joshua's most recent award was being named the 2011 Safari Club International Artist of the Year. A dedicated conservationist, Joshua is a life member of the Foundation for Wild Sheep, the Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation, Pheasants Forever, Safari Club International, Ducks Unlimited, Dallas Safari Club, and ISHA. He is also a member of Grand Slam Club, Whitetails Unlimited, Mule Deer Foundation, Delta Waterfowl, and the NRA.