

SCUBA DIVING SCOTLAND

Congratulations!

You have just taken your first step in becoming a PADI Instructor with Glasgow's only PADI 5 Star Instructor Development Centre. PADI Instructor Development serves two purposes – to develop and refine both personal dive skills and leadership ability to an elevated level.

In PADI's system, instructor development begins with the PADI Assistant Instructor course through the IDC, and includes a variety of instructor enhancement programs ranging from Specialty Instructor training to IDC Staff Instructor courses.

The foundation of instructor development is the PADI Instructor Development Course (IDC), which includes online independent study through PADI eLearning or live-delivery segments. The IDC can also be separated into an Assistant Instructor (AI) course and the Open Water Scuba Instructor (OWSI) program.

Candidates completing the Assistant Instructor course are authorized to conduct some PADI programs independently. They may also go on to complete an OWSI program in the future.

Candidates completing an entire IDC (or AIs who go on to complete an OWSI Program) are eligible to enroll in a PADI Instructor Examination (IE) conducted by PADI staff. The IE evaluates the candidate's teaching ability, dive knowledge, skill level, understanding of the PADI System, attitude and professionalism using standardized, objective criteria. When the criteria are met, candidates achieve the PADI Open Water Scuba Instructor rating.

This two phase program – the development phase (IDC) conducted by PADI Course Directors and their instructor development staff; and the evaluative phase (IE) conducted by PADI Staff – is the most comprehensive and demanding of any in the dive industry. New PADI Instructors meet the highest standards for learning and performance of any recreational diver certification organization.

PADI offers the finest Instructor training program available and the PADI IDC provides a professional learning experience in which you will learn how to teach diving using the PADI system of diver education. Enclosed you will find some important information about the courses available and their objectives.

Should you decide to complete any of the PADI Instructor courses with us please contact us and you make payment through our website to confirm your booking. If you have any further questions please feel free to call, email or visit us and we will be happy to help.
