his twelve apostles.

CHAPTER 10.
 1 Christ undertaketh not his twelve apostles, enabling them with power to do wonders. I speak these things charge, brethren of mine, I comfort them against persecutions, I send forth them in blessing to those who receive them.

AND when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power to possess, and to tread upon serpents and scorpions, and to be invulnerable by the enemy.

2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these: The first, Simon who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee and John his brother;

27 For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.

24 - The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his seen, and yet you won't believe me when I tell you about earthly things, how can you possibly believe me when I tell you about heavenly things? ¹³No one has ever gone to heaven and come back down. But the Son of Man* has come down from heaven. ¹⁴And as Moses lifted up the bronze snake on a pole in the wilderness, so the Son of Man must be lifted up, ¹⁵so that everyone who believes in him will have eternal life. ¹⁶"For this is how God loved the world: He gave* his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life. ¹⁷God sent his Son into the world not to judge the world, but to save it through him. ¹⁸"There is no judgment against anyone who believes in him. But anyone who does not believe in him has already been judged for not believing in the Son. ¹⁹And the judgment is this: Light has come into the world, but people love darkness more than light because their deeds are evil.

Prayer of Thanksgiving
25 At that time Jesus prayed this prayer: "O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, thank you for hiding these things from those who think themselves wise and clever, and for revealing them to the childlike. 26 Yes, Father, it pleased you to do it this way!
27 "My Father has entrusted everything to me. No one truly knows the Son except the Father, and no one truly knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him."
28 Then Jesus said, "Come to me, all of you who are weary and carry heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. 29 Take my yoke upon you and I will teach you, because I am humble and gentle at heart, and my yoke is easy to bear, and the Father will send the Holy Spirit to dwell in you and abide with you and be in you. 30 For my Father loves the Son and has entrusted all things to him."

December

The Savior—yes, the Messiah, the Lord—has been born today in Bethlehem, the city of David!

Luke 2:11
