

Weisman's Nutrient Compounds having excellent wide spectrum effects in a variety of different dog disease cases.

7. I use Evolution Diet and Eric Weisman's services routinely because their charges are low. The supplements that I use in conjunction with his procedures are also low in both cost and toxicity. The Nutrient-based Procedures are also easy to administer.

8. I am sure that Eric Weisman's Nutrient Procedures have been both life-extending and quality-of-life-improving in virtually every case I have used them for.

9. I shall continue to use Eric Weisman's Procedures because I believe they are effective.

10. I certainly have received better service from ED and Eric Weisman than many veterinarians I have dealt with, for example:

A. When one of our dogs hurt her leg, Eric told us what to give her, and she healed very quickly;

B. Eric's suggested treatment for kennel cough worked great;

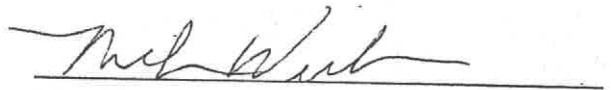

C. When we were not sure how or if to quarantine a new dog, Eric took time to explain all of the necessary precautions and suggested solutions that worked;

D. Eric took time to suggest treatments for skin conditions and infections for a new dog, even before we received him;

E. Eric was professional and responsive, and took time to evaluate a dog's medical treatment prescribed by a veterinarian, which vet later agreed with Eric and modified the treatment per Eric's suggestions.
