The Art of Marquetry

Marquetry is the fine art of creating inlaid images or pictures with wood veneers. By carefully selecting various species of woods based on their colour, figure and grain texture, we can create beautiful patterns. Other materials, such as shells, stones, metals and brass can be used to enhance the desired effect of the image.

The process became popular in France in the late 16th century and received an enormous stimulus in the two following centuries as the European economy started to expand and created a demand for luxurious domestic pieces of art.

Manopoulos inlaid Backgammon sets are unrivaled in design, style, craftsmanship and beauty.

Transcending time, each inlaid backgammon set is a unique piece and radiates emotion when used.

The Grid Wood backgammon has been crafted using the Art of Marquetry. The exterior design is inspired by an ancient pattern that creates the illusion of a grid structure. Four different toned woods are joined together as a block, then thin layers of veneer are planed off to create this design. The result catches the light and gives a sense of depth to the flat surface.

OUR CHESS COLLECTION

Manopoulos is proud to introduce the Chess Collection, with great cultural value and timeless design. Our Chess Sets are the result of gifted sculptors' work, designers and craftsmen with a deep respect for the ancient, Greek civilization and European History.

The figures are inspired by the most famous marble works of art, while their themes are chosen in such a way as to offer a hint of our very long history and fascinating mythology.

For over 45 years, we create chess sets through the use of the most advanced technology of die casting and metal plating, while the sets are varnished and finished off by hand.

Our backgammon and chess sets are not just for playing. Our games become a way to fight the dictates of standardizations. Manopoulos Chess and Backgammon are translated in a sophisticated, refined and design-led aesthetic for home decor.
