

Senior Graphic Designer

Lancing

£35,000 - £40,000 per annum

GoGecko is working in Partnership with Flare Audio to find a Senior Graphic Designer to join their team.

This is the chance to be a Senior Graphic Designer as part of an exciting audio technology company based in Lancing on the South Coast. Flare Audio are a dynamic and progressive outfit who design and manufacture everything from earphones, earplugs and in-ear devices that change the way we hear. They've sold over 1.3 million pairs of in-ear devices and ship to over 180 countries with their HQ just 5 minutes from the railway station and the beach.

If you want to work as a Senior Graphic Designer in a friendly and happy team whose products are adopted and loved around the world (and if you enjoy cake on your birthday and the odd weekday quiz) then this is the job for you.
