What is Adaptive Clothing?

Adaptive Clothing is designed to make life easier for people who experience difficulty with dressing. This may be due to an inability to manipulate buttons and zippers or for those with limited shoulder and arm movement. Adaptive Clothing typically offers solutions such as open back and velcro ® designs that allow our clients to maintain their independence and style.

Benefits of our Adaptive Clothing include:

1. Time efficiency when dressing
2. Reduces the risk of injury to the individual, staff and carers
3. Maintains individuals independence, dignity, self-worth and self-identity
4. Provides fashionable and comfortable clothing
5. Provides quality fabrics and quality products
6. Offers choice, variety and affordability
