

and fenced off a paddock, and is now in the process of converting a garage into an extra showroom and art studio. She has been painting commercially for three years now and loves 'sharing my enthusiasm with others'. Her inspiration is the seasons, colours and textures of nature, so she would like to fit folding glass doors to the front of the garage so that the space can be completely opened up to the garden.

'I love working outside,' says Kerrie, 'so maybe that is why I adore this house so much because we are surrounded by the sights and sounds of nature - I just couldn't imagine living anywhere else.'
