ABOUT THIS DISH

Tortelloni originate from Modena, a city in the Emilia-Romagna region of Italy. The exact origin of the shape is widely disputed, but one theory is tortelloni were meant to replicate the shape of a turtle shell, which is famously displayed throughout Modena's 17th century architecture. Ancestors of the truffle have been used in Italian cooking since ancient times, with the first mention of them being in 2nd century, AD. Ancient Romans used them to enhance flavour in their banquets. Roman banquets, known as "convivium", were a well-established tradition in ancient Rome. There were 3 types: "epulum", a public feast, "cena", typically a private dinner eaten in mid-afternoon and "comissatio" a private drinking party.

We source our truffles from the truffle-rich countryside of Umbria (see below Norcia, in Umbria) & pair them with beautiful, marbled beef to create the ultimate earthy, rich & flavourful filling. Our tortelloni are complemented by truffle butter and almonds, bringing you a moment of eating that will seem as extravagantly indulgent as it will elegant. Just how it should be.

METHOD

1. Bring a large saucepan of salted water to boil.
2. Cook the tortelloni in the boiling water for 4 minutes until 'al dente' (test the edge of one of the tortelloni before removing from the water).
3. Put the butter in a pan, cover with a lid and heat until steaming. Once steaming, turn off the heat.
4. Lift the tortelloni out of the water and transfer to the butter.
5. Sprinkle the tortelloni with the almonds. Buon appetito.
