is authorized to make retail sales of vapor products.
This certificate may not be photocopied or reproduced and is valid for this location only.

Important information

The Certificate of Registration (C of R) on the front page of this form (Form DTF-720.1) is only valid for sales made at the physical retail location listed on your approved application (Form DTF-716.1) where vapor products are sold at retail in New York State. You must display this certificate (Form DTF-720.1) publicly in the place of business, or on the cart, truck, stand, or other merchandising device through which vapor products are sold at retail. Also, if applicable, you must affix Form DTF-721.1, Vending Machine Registration Certificate for Vapor Products, to vending machines that dispense vapor products. Form DTF-721.1 will be sent to you under separate cover. Separate registrations are required for each business location where vapor products are sold at retail in New York State. This certificate is valid through December 31 of the year listed on this certificate.

Violation of the Certificate of Registration

A certificate of registration is a retail dealer's license to sell vapor products at retail in New York State. The license is conditioned upon compliance with New York State Tax and Public Health Laws regarding sales of vapor products. A vapor products dealer who violates certain provisions of the Tax Law may be subject to a civil fine and suspension of their license to sell vapor products for six months on a first violation. A second violation within three years of a prior violation may result in a civil fine and a suspension for three years, and a third violation within five years may result in a civil fine and revocation for five years.
