Form 69-300 (Back) (Rev.6-17/15)

All permits are issued subject to the provisions of the law. This permit may be revoked, suspended or cancelled for a violation of any provision of any taxing statute administered by the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts or any rule adopted by the Comptroller to administer those statutes. Receipt of this permit does not mean that the taxpayer to whom it is issued is in good standing with the Comptroller.

A new permit must be obtained in the event of any change in ownership, location, business location name or vehicle information. If the location on this permit is closed, or the vehicle is no longer in service, return the permit to the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts and list the date of your last taxable business transaction. This permit is revocable and may be forfeited or suspended for any violation of any provision of the law or any rule adopted by the Comptroller of Public Accounts to administer the law.
