KERRIGAN + BERRY CHARDONNAY 2020

Light, bright yellow colour. Smoky struck-flint aroma complexities, lovely toasty creamy nuances overlying delicate stone fruits, with some of the grapefruit that typifies this region's chardonnay emerging. The palate is likewise with freshness and intensity, drive and focus, finishing with an interesting saline quality. A smashing young chardonnay with a bright future.

As with most great chardonnays from Margaret River in 2020, there is an effortlessness about this wine. It is graceful and ever so fine, sure to expand in volume and generosity in the years to come. That briny acidity of Margaret River chardonnays is here, finely knitting the fruit components together.
