90 Points | James Halliday Wine Companion 2018

Good colour; medium-bodied, with attractive small berry fruits to the fore, and enough tannins to guide the palate through to the finish.

Special value for money rosette.

A well crafted example of a blend which seems to be more at home here than any other Australian region. Distinctly Margaret River, and distinctly varietal, the leafy, dried herb aromas combine with juicy blackcurrant and mulberry fruit on the bouquet. Smooth and supple on the palate, the light but tangy astringency provides definition for the generous red and black fruit flavour. Ready to drink, but there's no rush.
