

PITCHFORK

PITCHFORK CHARDONNAY 2022

RATING

91

Punching up, this featherweight is fighting at welterweight. Aromatically complex with some youthful pear aromas layered over nectarine and a smidge of tutti-frudtti tropical. To taste, this wine comes into its own. Crisp and dry, with a little chardonnay texture, but not too much. Stone fruit flavours and a pithy citrusy freshness linger long unencumbered by oak. Hits the mark.

PAUL EDWARDS - THE WEST AUSTRALIAN WINE
DECEMBER 2022