- Why would an athlete want to use this instrument? What will it do for me?
 1. Because it's fast relief, often results in just one or two minutes. No need to wait for therapy.
 2. Micro current it's not just pain control but helps to energize, balance and heal the body.
- What makes this so different from all the other instruments out there that are used to treat pain control?
 1. There are no wires to connect and get in the way and wonder where to place them.
 2. It is very portable, you can carry it in your shirt pocket. Just treat where you hurt or are tight.
 3. The simplicity of treatment means you can treat yourself, anyone, anywhere, any time.
