AFFORDABLE GIFTS FOR KIDS

You're spoiled for choice when it comes to low-cost presents for little ones. NYC-based toy company Yottoy has brought R.J. Palacio's "We're All Wonders" ($19) to life with a plush toy of the protagonist, Auggie ($23), available at West Side Kids.

A future astronaut will be captivated by a star map ($60) from TheNightSky.com, which shows exactly how the night sky looked from a particular place on a custom date, such as a birthday.

What teen girl doesn't love trying out different skincare products? The Kiehl's x Andrew Bannecker Smooth Skin Delights Kit ($35), available at Kiehl's, allows them to sample two hand creams and a salve. Plus, proceeds from each kit help provide 1,000,000 meals for people in need through the hunger relief charity, Feeding America.

For musically inclined kids who aren't quite ready for an electric guitar, give them the next best thing: the Fender Venice Soprano Ukulele ($59.99) from Sam Ash. They'll learn how to play Hawaiian-inspired tunes from the pint-size instrument in a flash.

LEGO CARGO TRAIN

LAVISH GIFTS FOR KIDS

Know some kids on Santa's extra nice list? Treat them to the Harry Potter Hogwarts Express Set ($275) from JuniperBooks.com. It puts J.K. Rowling's famous series in artful book jackets that look stunning on a shelf.

LEGO kits are a perennial hit. With more than 1,200 pieces, the LEGO Cargo Train ($229.99), sold at the LEGO Store, will keep kids entertained for weeks as they construct a train with a working 10-speed engine.

For the ultimate gift for creative kids, Hammacher Schlemmer has something that can't be beat: the World's Largest Illuminated Light Peg Mural ($10,000). The larger-than-life mural, which mounts to a wall, can depict changing works of art that will be fun for the whole family to create.
