This classic tale, written by Gene Zion and illustrated by Margaret Boy Graham, is a humorous yet simple story about Harry and is enjoyed by children of all ages. During testing, five children sat in a circle while one of our editors read the story. They passed the dog from child to child and really enjoyed "acting" the parts out with Harry. YOTTOY has a wonderful line of story characters, including the beloved Velveteen Rabbit, but we just couldn't resist Harry as our favorite!
