Cold War Fifth Column Tactics, Critical Race Theory, Social Justice: "These trouble-breeders have but one purpose--to divide our people"-FDR

"We have seen the treacherous use of the 'fifth column' by which persons supposed to be peaceful visitors were actually a part of an enemy unit of occupation ...

... These trouble-breeders have but one purpose. It is to divide our people into hostile groups and to destroy our unity and shatter our will to defend ourselves."

The term "fifth column" referred to ancient warfare, where two columns of soldiers were in the middle of the battlefield, with two flanks on either side.

The fifth column were spies who had infiltrated the enemy camp to demoralize and confuse them.

This practice was used by Philip II of Macedon, the father of Alexander the Great, who took gold from the mines near the Greek city of Amphipolis and used it to bribe citizens of Athens to betray their city.

These paid betrayers and bribed politicians would organize around themselves what have been referred to as "useful fools" or "useful idiots," naive people who actually believed their propaganda.

Cicero addressed the Roman Senate, c.42 BC:

"A nation can survive its fools and even the ambitious. But it cannot survive treason from within.

An enemy at the gates is less formidable, for he is known and he carries his banners openly against the city.

But the traitor moves among those within the gates freely, his sly whispers rustling through all alleys, heard in the very halls of government itself ...

He works secretly and unknown in the night to undermine the pillars of a city; he infects the body politic so that it can no longer resist. A murderer is less to be feared."

The Book of Nehemiah tells of Sanballat the Horonite, the chief enemy of the Jews, who tried every way possible to undermine their work of rebuilding the walls around Jerusalem.

Nehemiah finally discovered that there was a traitor in their midst --

High Priest Eliashib' grandson was married to Sanballat's daughter.

This was the source of the leaked information to Sanballat and the seeds of division and fearful rumors sown within the city designed to paralyze them and to stop the rebuilding of the walls.

Nehemiah drove them out.

In 1936, during the Spanish Civil War, the Nationalist General Emilio Mola marched toward Madrid with four columns of soldiers, having supporters inside the city as a "fifth column" to undermine the Republican government from within.

The term "Fifth Column" is believed to have been coined in 1936 by Emilio Mola y Vidal (1887-1937), a nationalist general during the Spanish Civil War (1936-1939), as his army of four columns was approaching Madrid, and he said that a "Fifth Column" would join them from within the city.

*Ernest Hemingway's The Fifth Column and the First Forty-Nine Stories (1938) is a homage to that coinage.*

Wednesday, April 17, 13

While in Madrid, Ernest Hemingway wrote a play which he included in his 1938 book "Fifth Column."

These tactics of psychological warfare were perfected during World War II.

Ernest Hemingway

THE FIFTH COLUMN

and FOUR STORIES OF
THE SPANISH CIVIL WAR

Franklin
Roosevelt stated
May 16, 1940:

"We have seen
the treacherous use of the 'fifth column' by which persons supposed to be peaceful visitors were actually a part of an enemy unit of occupation.

Lightning attacks, capable of destroying airplane factories and munition works hundreds of miles behind the lines, are a part of the new technique of modern war ...

... We must be strong in heart

and mind; strong in our faith ...

This nation requires also a toughness of moral and physical fiber ... characteristics of a free people ... a people willing to defend a way of life that is precious to them all, a people who put their faith in God."

Roosevelt stated December 29, 1940:

"Their secret emissaries are active in our own and in neighboring countries.

They seek to stir up ... dissension to cause internal strife.

They try to turn capital against labor, and vice versa.

They try to reawaken long slumbering racial and religious enmities which should have no place in this country ...

"There are also American citizens, many of them in high places, who, unwittingly in most cases, are aiding and abetting the work of these agents.

I do not charge these American citizens with being foreign agents.

But I do charge them with doing exactly the kind of work that the dictators want done in the United States."

Following World Wars I and II, the major colonizing powers, the British, French, Dutch, Belgian, Spanish, Italian, and Japanese, gave independence to their former colonies and territorial possessions around the world.

This left a power vacuum which the Soviet Union and the Communist Chinese sought to fill by taking advantage of the unstable conditions in these newly independent countries to sow division and seize control.

At the end of World War II, many nations in Africa & Asia gained independence from European imperialists

This trend was known as decolonization

The first major colony to gain independence was India in 1947

Winston Churchill described a tactic employed by the Soviets communists, called "fifth columns" in his famous "Iron Curtain" speech at Westminster College in Fulton, Missouri, March 5, 1946:

"In a great number of countries, far from the Russian frontiers and throughout the world, communist "fifth columns" are established and work in complete unity and absolute obedience to the directions they receive from the communist center.

... Except in the British Commonwealth and in the United States where communism is in its infancy, the communist parties or fifth columns constitute a growing challenge and peril to Christian civilization ...

Last time I saw it all coming and cried aloud to my own fellow-countrymen and to the world, but no one paid any attention."

Fifth column methods included:

- espionage;
- propaganda;
- infiltration of college campuses;
- getting Marxist professors hired;
- establishing radical student groups to recruit revolutionaries;
- infiltrate music and movie industries to produce entertainment eroding moral fiber;

- malign patriotism;
- gain control of the leadership of all political parties;
- place moles in government bureaucracies and courts;
- and finally, sway churches to de-emphasis salvation through the Gospel of Jesus Christ and replace it with social justice issues.

Like a software virus infecting computers, fifth column tactics infected Western Civilization with socialist ideology.

Reagan stated in 1961:

"Now back in 1927 an American socialist, Norman Thomas, six times candidate for president on the Socialist Party ticket, said the American people would never vote for socialism.

But he said under the name of liberalism the American people will adopt every fragment of the socialist program."

Soviet leader Nikita Khrushchev reportedly told Ezra Taft Benson, Eisenhower's Secretary of Agriculture, in 1959:

"Your children's children will live under communism. You Americans are so gullible.

No, you won't accept communism outright, but we'll keep feeding you small doses of socialism until you will finally wake up and find that you already have communism.

We won't have to fight you; We'll so weaken your economy, until you fall like overripe fruit into our hands."

To my Fellow Americans
I am concerned for the security of our great nation;
Not so much because of any threat from without,
But because of the insidious forces
Working from within.
General Douglas MacArthur

General Douglas MacArthur warned the Michigan legislature in Lansing, Michigan, May 15, 1952:

"Talk of imminent threat to our national security through ... external force is pure nonsense.

It is not of any external threat that I concern myself but rather of insidious forces working from within which have already so drastically altered the character of our free institutions – those institutions we proudly called the American way of life."

Eisenhower

addressed
Congress,
February 2, 1953:

"No single country, even one so powerful as ours, can alone defend the liberty of all nations threatened by communist aggression from without and subversion within."

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover stated:

"The communist threat from without must not blind us to the communist threat from within."

The latter is reaching into the very heart of America through its espionage agents and a cunning, defiant, and lawless communist party, which is fanatically dedicated to the Marxist cause of world enslavement and destruction of the foundations of our republic."

The Cold War was at its height from 1947 to 1991, with nuclear attacks prevented by mutually assured destruction and proxy wars fought between the U.S. and the U.S.S.R. and China.

Countries experienced political parties infiltrated, Communist Parties being established, coup d'etat plots to removed leaders, and military conquests.

During this time, 45 countries became communist satellites, often with brutal purges which killed millions.

Countries included:

Afghanistan, Albania, Angola, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Benin, Bosnia, Bulgaria, Cambodia, China, Congo, Cuba, Croatia, Czech Republic, East Germany, Egypt, Eritrea, Estonia, Ethiopia, Georgia, Herzegovina, Indonesia, Hungary, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Laos, Latvia, Lebanon, Lithuania, Macedonia, Moldova, Mongolia, Montenegro, Mozambique, Nicaragua, North Korea, Poland, Romania, Russia, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia, Somalia, South Yemen, Syria, Tajikistan, Tibet, Turkmenistan, Ukraine, Uzbekistan, Vietnam, Yemen, and Yugoslavia.

The main takeover tactic was "critical theory."

The term "critical" is derived from the word "critique" as used by Immanuel

Kant in The Critique of Pure Reason.

Homer W. Smith (Man and His Gods, NY: Grosset & Dunlap, 1952) explained:

"Kant's Critique of Pure Reason is important because it threw the philosophy of the 19th century into a state of temporary confusion ... It failed to prove ... the existence of a priori (self-evident) truth ...

If there were no promises the fulfillment of which was to be expected, 'lying' would indeed be a universal law of action, and by Kant's own criterion lying would now be moral, and it would be truth that would be immoral."

Kant influenced later philosophers, such as G.W.F. Hegel, Antonio Gramsci, and Karl Marx, who in his Das Kapital described "critique of political economy."

Critical Theory is also referred to as:

- Critical Economic Theory,
- Critical Social Theory,
- Critical Political Theory, or
- Critical Race Theory.

In application, "critical theory" developed into several steps:

- Identifying cultural groups within a country, economically, religiously, ethnically, or racially, and sorting them into categories of victims and oppressors, "haves" and "have nots," those who have achieved and those who have grievances;

- Undermine the country's patriotism by pitting the various groups against each other to sow division;
- Organize "victims" to protest and riot, then escalate it into violence and bloodshed, as once blood is shed, people no longer think rationally but respond emotionally, and in that state they can be easily manipulated with tactics of "fear-mongering" and "race-baiting" an irrational "Hatfield–McCoy" retaliation;
- Bribe and threaten the media to blame the leader of the country for all of the out-of-control problems, fan the narrative of "haves" oppressing "have nots," utilize "psychological projection" and "attacker blames victim" ploy to "blame-shift" the responsibility of the violence to the innocent party;
- When nation becomes sufficiently confused and destabilized, carry out a coup or a rigged election to overthrow the country's representative government, and, with promises of restoring order, replace it with a socialist dictatorship.
- Citizens then are "normalized," initially relieved that order is restored but now accustomed to living with less freedom under a totalitarian government.

A person who lived through Mao's Cultural Revolution was Xi Van Fleet, a mother who gave testimony at a Loudoun County School Board meeting in Virginia, regarding CRT–Critical Race

Theory being taught to students (Michael Ruiz, FoxNews, therightscoop.com, Rumble.com, MPM-Mr Producer Media, published June 9, 2021):

"I've been very alarmed about what's been going on in our school. You are now training our children to be social justice warriors and to loathe our country and our history. Growing up in Mao's China, all this seems very familiar.

... The Communist regime used the same critical theory to divide people. The only difference is they used classes instead of race.

... During the cultural revolution I witnessed students and teachers again turn against each other. We changed the school names to be politically correct.

We were taught to denounce our heritage; the red guards destroyed anything that is not communist -- statues, books and anything else.

... We were also encouraged to report on each other just like the student equity ambassador program and the bias reporting system.

This is indeed the American version of the Chinese cultural revolution.

The Critical Race Theory has its roots in cultural Marxism; it should have NO PLACE in our schools."

The U.S.S.R.'s Committee for State Security (Komitet Gosudarstvennoy Bezopasnosti, or KGB) organized clandestine opposition groups to destabilize pro-western countries.

The KGB, with the help of Fidel Castro, created the National Liberation Army of Columbia (FARC) in 1964; and with the help of Ernesto "Che" Guevara, created the National Liberation Army of Bolivia (ELN).

In 1964, the KGB, with the help of Yasir Arafat, the Egyptian-born nephew of Mufti Amin al-Husseini, created the Palestine Liberation Organization (PLO).

In 1968, the KGB created the "liberation theology" to promote a progressive Marxist social justice agenda of class-warfare to destabilize western democracies.

When Soviet communists took control of the nation of Hungary, President John F. Kennedy stated October 23, 1960:

"Americans will never ... recognize

Soviet domination of Hungary. Hungary's claim to independence and liberty is not based on sentiment or politics. It is deeply rooted in history, in culture and in law.

No matter what sort of puppet government they may maintain, we do not mean to see that claim abandoned. Americans intend to hasten ... the day when the men and women of Hungary will stand again in freedom and justice."

The CIA began mimicking KGB tactics.

In the 1952, U.S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson, CIA Director Allen Dulles, and

CIA Operative Kermit Roosevelt, Jr., grandson of Theodore Roosevelt, participated in Project FF with elements in Egypt's military to replace Egypt's King Farouk and replace him with Gamal Nassar.

In 1953, Iran's Prime Minister Mohammad Mossadegh began aligning with the U.S.S.R. He nationalized the country's oil industry, taking control away from Britain's Anglo-Iranian Oil Company (BP).

Britain appealed to the U.S. for help, but President Truman refused.

The next President, Dwight Eisenhower, approved the CIA's first operation to overthrow a foreign government – Operation Ajax.

Though controversial, had Eisenhower not responded, much of the world may have speedily fallen to communist KGB tactics.

Orchestrated by Kermit Roosevelt Jr., the tactic involved identifying groups with grievances and organizing them to riot.

Muslim imams were recruited, the press was bribed, and the most feared mobsters in Tehran were hired to get agitators to stage violent riots, and attack mosques.

This destabilized the country of Iran and swayed public opinion against Mossadegh, allowing him to be overthrown in a coup and placed under house arrest till he died.

He was then replaced with the pro-West Shah Resa Pahlavi.

Similar CIA operations were carried out in:

- Guatemala, 1954;
- Congo, 1960;
- Dominican Republic, 1961;
- South Vietnam, 1963;
- Brazil, 1964;
- Chile, 1973;
- and in other countries in varying degrees with Britain's MI6, becoming the topic of innumerable spy novels.

Secretary of State John Dulles stated April 11, 1955:

"Men face the great dilemma of whether to use force to resist aggression which imposes conditions which violate the moral law and the concept that man has his origins and his destiny in God."

At the 1954 Geneva Conference, Dulles reportedly refused to shake hands with the first Premier of the People's Republic of China, Zhou Enlai, as he orchestrated the persecutions committed by Mao Zedong's Communist Party, which killed millions.

Zhou Enlai stated:

"One of the delightful things about Americans is that they have absolutely no historical memory."

The idea of cognitive warfare may sound like science fiction to most people, writes Judith Bergman, an attorney, political analyst and senior fellow at the Gatestone Institute ...

"Intelligentization will aim to achieve advantages in psychological warfare," wrote Ben Noon, a research assistant at the American Enterprise Institute, and Dr. Chris Bassler, senior fellow at the Center for Strategic and Budgetary Assessments, in September 2021.

"Theorists describe a 'cognitive confrontation,' in which PLA leaders will psychologically dominate opposing commanders through better and faster decisions ... reducing an enemy's will to resist," they said.

Further, China has been doing research on brain control or brain warfare research for several years as part of its work on developing intelligentized warfare, according to three reports written in 2019 by the People's Liberation Army and obtained by the Washington Times.

"War has started to shift from the pursuit of destroying bodies to paralyzing and controlling the opponent," said one of the Chinese reports, which was published in the official military newspaper PLA Daily.

"The focus is to attack the enemy's will to resist, not physical destruction" and to cause "the brain to become the main target of offense and defense of new concept weapons," according to a PLA report. "To win without fighting is no longer far-fetched" ...

The Center for Security and Emerging Technology produced a report last October titled "Harnessed Lightning: How the Chinese Military is Adopting Artificial Intelligence."

John Foster Dulles called communism "godless terrorism," stating April 11, 1955:

"Man, we read in the Holy Scriptures, was made a little lower than the angels. Should man now be made little higher than domesticated animals which serve the purpose of their human masters?"

Solzhenitsyn warned at Harvard, June 8, 1978:

"Many people living in the West are dissatisfied with their own society. They despise it or accuse it of no longer being up to the level of maturity by mankind.

And this causes many to sway toward socialism, which is a false and dangerous current."

Churchill noted regarding youth who felt that since 10 percent of citizens were not experiencing prosperity that they should consider socialism, June 13, 1948:

"I do not at all wonder that British youth is in revolt against the morbid doctrine that nothing matters but the equal sharing of miseries, that what used to be called the 'submerged tenth' can only be rescued by bringing the other nine-tenths down to their level."

David Horowitz, a conservative author who had previously been a 1960s radical Marxist, wrote in the Jewish World Review, September 6, 2001:

"The social justice organizations ... protesters are the 'fifth column' vanguards envisaged by Weatherman, declaring war on the Empire and plotting to tear down its walls from within."

Solzhenitsyn
warned June 30, 1975:

"I ... call upon
America to be more careful with its trust ...

Prevent those ...
from falsely using the struggle for peace and for social justice to lead you down a false road."

Friedrich Hayek
wrote:

"I am certain that nothing has done so much to destroy the judicial safeguards
of individual freedom as the striving after this mirage of social justice."

On February 7,
2020, MSNBC
commentator
Chris Matthews addressed a panel following the
Democrat Presidential debate, where some of the candidates espoused socialism.

Chris Matthews had stated:

"The issue of this campaign, it is that word 'socialism' ... Younger people like it.

Those of us like me, who grew up in the Cold War and saw some aspects of it if you're visiting places like Vietnam like I have, and seen countries like Cuba, being there.

I've seen what socialism is like, and I don't like it. OK? It's not only not free, it doesn't frickin' work.

My own views of the word socialist ... go back to the early nineteen fifties ...

... I remember the Cold War ...

I believe that if Castro and the Reds had won the Cold War, there would have been executions in Central Park, and I might have been one of the ones being executed!

And certain other people would have been there, cheering, OK?"

Matthews comments caused a backlash and in two weeks his employment ended

Churchill stated
October 22, 1945:

"The inherent vice of capitalism is the

AND THE GOSPEL OF ENVY ITS INHERENT VIRTUE IS THE EQUAL SHARING OF MISERY

unequal sharing of blessings.

The inherent virtue of socialism is the equal sharing of miseries."

Ayn Rand wrote:

"If a businessman makes a mistake, he suffers the consequences.

If a bureaucrat makes a mistake you suffer the consequences."

Churchill stated in Perth, Scotland, May 28, 1948 (Churchill, Europe Unite: Speeches 1947 & 1948, London: Cassell, 1950, 347):

"Socialism is the philosophy of failure, the creed of ignorance and the gospel of envy.

Unless we free our country while time remains from the perverse doctrines of Socialism, there can be no hope for recovery ...

Our place in the world will be lost forever, and not only our individual self-respect but our national independence will be gone."

"Fifth column" groups utilize the tactic of "psychological projection" or "blame-shifting" where the attacker blames the victim.

Sigmund Freud wrote in Case Histories II (PFL 9, p. 132) of psychological projection where humans resort to the defensive mechanism of denying in themselves the existence of unpleasant behavior while attributing that exact behavior to others, ie., a rude person accusing others of being rude.

Karl Marx is attributed with saying "Accuse the victim of what you do."
In the political context, be the first to accuse your opponent of what you are guilty of:

- If you are lying, accuse your opponent of it;
- If you are racist, accuse your opponent of it;
- If you are intolerant, accuse your opponent of it;
- If you are hateful, accuse your opponent of it;

- If you engaged in criminal acts, accuse your opponent;
- If you are organizing voter fraud, discredit those exposing it.

The New York Times

Cash Flowed to Clinton Foundation Amid Russian Uranium Deal

By JO BECKER and MIKE McINTIRE APRIL 23, 2015

The New York Times, April 23, 2015, ran the headline "Cash Flowed to Clinton Foundation Amid Russian Uranium Deal."

Democrat Political advisor David Axelrod verbalized this Machiavellian tactic in an NPR interview, April 19, 2010:

"In Chicago, there was an old tradition of throwing a brick through your own campaign office window, and then calling a press conference to say that you've been attacked."

A concern that Antifa-style terrorist groups may have recruited from those let out of prison in the response to the COVID pandemic in Democrat controlled cities and states, some possibly MS-13 and other gang members that illegally crossed U.S. borders or fundamentalist ISIS members who accompanied unvetted immigrants from Syria, Somalia, and the Middle East.

COVID responses also included shutting down small businesses.

An observation is that when crime goes up in cities and when small businesses are shut down, some people feel insecure and lose the means of supporting their families, so they leave.

Who leaves?

Maybe those with children and families or small business owners, certainly those with financial means to leave.

These would tend to be pro-family and pro-business. Statistically a higher percentage Republican.

Who is left in the cities?

Maybe more people who are dependent on government entitlements and benefits. Statistically a higher percentage Democrat.

So crime and unemployment go up; Republicans leave; Democrats get a monopoly on city politics.

If someone had an inclination to do voter fraud, this would provide an ideal opportunity as there would be fewer Republican poll watchers.

In elections, whoever wins the big cities wins the state,

And whoever wins the state gets all the electoral votes for the state.

And the President is elected by electoral votes.

So crime and unemployment go up, Republicans leave, Democrats get a monopoly on city politics, they win the city, they win the state, they get all the electoral votes for the state, they vote in the President in a type of fifth column soft-coup.

There is definitive a political advantage to one particular party by allowing crime and unemployment to go up in the big cities!

Franklin Roosevelt stated at the Dedication of Great Smoky Mountains National Park, September 2, 1940:

"There is another enemy at home ... that ... mocks at ideals, sneers at sacrifice and pretends that the American people can live by bread alone.

If the spirit of God is not in us, and if we will not prepare to give all that we have and all that we are to preserve Christian civilization in our land, we shall go to destruction."
