John F. Kennedy shot. What did he & others warn America?

John F. Kennedy stated in his Thanksgiving Proclamation, October 28, 1961:

"The Pilgrims, after a year of hardship and peril, humbly and reverently set aside a special day upon which to give thanks to God ...

I ask the head of each family to recount to his children the story of the first New England Thanksgiving, thus to impress upon future generations the heritage of this nation born in toil, in danger, in purpose, and in the conviction that right and justice and freedom can through man's efforts persevere and come to fruition with the blessing of God."

While visiting the home state of his Vice-President Lyndon Baines Johnson, November 22, 1963, John F. Kennedy was shot in Dallas, Texas.

The youngest President ever elected, being 43 years old, he was also the youngest to die, barely serving 1,000 days.

Kennedy was on his way to the Dallas Trade Mart to deliver a speech, in which he had prepared to say:

"We in this country, in this generation, are - by destiny rather than choice - the watchmen on the walls of world freedom."

"Watchman on the walls"

referenced a well-known Bible passage out of the Book of Ezekiel 33:7-9:

"If the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned ... his blood will I require at the watchman's hand ...

O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore ... warn them ...

When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked ... thou hast delivered thy soul ...

But if the wicked turn from his wickedness, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby."

We ask, therefore, that we may be worthy of our power and responsibility, that we may exercise our strength with wisdom and restraint, and that we may achieve in our time and for all time the ancient vision of peace on earth, goodwill toward men (Luke 2:14) ...

That must always be our goal - and the righteousness of our cause must always underlie our strength.

For as was written long ago, 'Except the Lord keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain.'" (Psalm 127:1)

Warning of the deep state, John F. Kennedy candidly addressed the American Newspaper Publishers Association at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York, April 27, 1961:

"The very word 'secrecy' is repugnant in a free and open society; and we are as a people inherently and historically opposed to secret societies, to secret oaths and to secret proceedings ...

We are opposed around the world by a ... ruthless conspiracy that relies primarily on covert means for expanding its sphere of influence - on infiltration instead of invasion, on subversion instead of elections, on intimidation instead of free choice, on guerrillas by night instead of armies by day.

... It is a system which has conscripted vast human and material resources into the building of a tightly knit, highly efficient machine that combines military, diplomatic, intelligence, economic, scientific and political operations.

Its preparations are concealed, not published.

Its mistakes are buried, not headlined. Its dissenters are silenced, not praised.

No expenditure is questioned, no rumor is printed, no secret is revealed."

Three days before Kennedy was inaugurated, President Dwight D. Eisenhower gave his final address, January 17, 1961, warning of "a military industrial complex" and "a scientific technological elite," similar to today's global big tech and pharma industries:

"We face a hostile ideology -- global in scope, atheistic in character, ruthless in purpose, and insidious in method ... of indefinite duration ...

Whether foreign or domestic ... there is a recurring temptation to feel that some spectacular and costly action could become the miraculous solution to all current difficulties ... development of unrealistic programs to cure every ill in agriculture; a dramatic expansion in basic and applied research ... suggested as the only way to the road we wish to travel.

But each proposal must be weighed in the light of ... the need to maintain balance ... between the private and the public economy ... balance between our essential requirements as a nation and the duties imposed by the nation upon the individual ..."

Eisenhower continued:

"But threats, new in kind or degree, constantly arise

Our arms must be mighty, ready for instant action, so that no potential aggressor may be tempted to risk his own destruction ...

But now ... we have been compelled to create a permanent armaments industry of vast proportions ...

The total influence -- economic, political, even spiritual -- is felt in every city, every State house, every office of the Federal government ... We must not fail to comprehend its grave implications.

Our toil, resources and livelihood are all involved; so is the very structure of our society.

In the councils of government, we must guard against the acquisition of unwarranted influence, whether sought or unsought, by the military industrial complex.

The potential for the disastrous rise of misplaced power exists and will persist.

We must never let the weight of this combination endanger our liberties or democratic processes. We should take nothing for granted.

Only an alert and knowledgeable citizenry can compel the proper meshing of the huge industrial and military machinery of defense with our peaceful methods and goals, so that security and liberty may prosper together.

Eisenhower warned of the tech industry:

"Akin to ... sweeping changes in our industrial-military posture, has been the technological revolution during recent decades.

In this revolution, research has become central; it also becomes more formalized, complex, and costly. A steadily increasing share is conducted for, by, or at the direction of, the Federal government.

Today, the solitary inventor, tinkering in his shop, has been overshadowed by task forces of scientists in laboratories and testing fields.

In the same fashion, the free university ... has experienced a revolution in the conduct of research. Partly because of the huge costs involved, a government contract becomes virtually a substitute for intellectual curiosity.

For every old blackboard there are now hundreds of new electronic computers.

The prospect of domination of the nation's scholars by Federal employment, project allocations, and the power of money is ever present and is gravely to be regarded ...

We must also be alert to the ... danger that public policy could itself become the captive of a scientific technological elite.

It is the task of statesmanship ... to balance ..., new and old, within the principles of our democratic system -- ever aiming toward the supreme goals of our free society ..."

Eisenhower concluded:

"You and I, and our government -- must avoid the impulse to live only for today, plundering, for our own ease and convenience, the precious resources of tomorrow.

We cannot mortgage the material assets of our grandchildren without risking the loss also of their political and spiritual heritage. We want democracy to survive for all generations to come, not to become the insolvent phantom of tomorrow ...

This world of ours, ever growing smaller, must avoid becoming a community of dreadful fear and hate, and be instead, a proud confederation of mutual trust and respect ...

You and I -- my fellow citizens -- need to be strong in our faith that all nations, under God, will reach the goal of peace with justice."

Another person addressing the threat to freedom was Lutheran minister Richard Wurmbrand.

In 1948, he was arrested by Socialist Republic of Romania and was tortured 14 years in prison. His wife, Sabina, was sent to labor camp.

After years of persecution and international pressure, the Wurmbrands received amnesty. In 1965, he testified before the U.S. Senate's Internal Security Subcommittee.

In 1967, Richard and Sabina Wurmbrand formed Jesus To The Communist World, renamed Voice of the Martyrs.

Richard Wurmbrand wrote:

"Every freedom-loving man has two fatherlands; his own and America ... America is the hope of every enslaved man, because it is the last bastion of freedom in the world.

Only America has the power and spiritual resources to stand as a barrier between militant Communism and the people of the world.

It is the last "dike" holding back the rampaging floodwaters of militant Communism. If it crumples, there is no other dike, no other dam; no other line of defense to fall back upon.

America is the last hope of millions of enslaved peoples ...

I have seen fellow-prisoners in Communist prisons beaten, tortured, with 50 pounds of chains on their legs - praying for America ... that the dike will not crumple; that it will remain free."

In the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, Alexander Solzhenitsyn was imprisoned, from 1945 to 1953.

After intense international pressure, he was released and traveled to Washington, D.C., where he stated

June 30, 1975:

"At the height of Stalin's terror in 1937-38 ... more than 40,000 persons shot per month! ...

It is precisely because I am the friend of the United States ... that I have come to tell you ...

Over there people are groaning and dying and in psychiatric hospitals. Doctors are making their evening rounds, for the third time injecting people with drugs which destroy their brain cells ...

I would like to call upon America to be more careful with its trust and prevent those ... using the struggle ... for social justice to lead you down a false road ...

They are trying to weaken you; they are trying to disarm your strong and magnificent country in the face of this fearful threat-one that has never been seen before in the history of the world.

I call upon ... ordinary working men of America ... do not let yourselves become weak."

Dutch politician
Geert Wilders

was born the year John F. Kennedy was shot.

Echoing Kennedy's admonition, that Americans are "watchmen on the walls of world freedom," Geert Wilders gave a speech in New York, September 25, 2008, titled "America the Last Man Standing":

"The United States as the last bastion of Western civilization, facing an Islamic Europe ...

Europe ... is changing ... by Muslim mass-migration ... with mosques on many street corners ... controlled by religious fanatics ...

Muslim neighborhoods ... are mushrooming in every city across Europe.

These are the building-blocks for territorial control of increasingly larger portions of Europe, street by street, neighborhood by neighborhood, city by city ...

Many European cities are already one-quarter Muslim: just take Amsterdam, Marseille and Malmo in Sweden ..."

continued:

"In many cities the majority of the under-18 population is Muslim.

Paris is now surrounded by a ring of Muslim neighborhoods. Mohammed is the most popular name among boys in many cities ... In once-tolerant Amsterdam gays are beaten up almost exclusively by Muslims.

Non-Muslim women routinely hear 'whore, whore' ... In France school teachers are advised to avoid authors deemed offensive to Muslims ... The history of the Holocaust can no longer be taught because of Muslim sensitivity ..."

Geert Wilders
stated further:

"In England sharia courts are now officially part of the British legal system. Many neighborhoods in France are no-go areas for women without head scarves ...

Jews are fleeing France in record numbers, on the run for the worst wave of anti-Semitism since World War II ...

A total of fifty-four million Muslims now live in Europe ... 25 percent of the population in Europe will be Muslim just 12 years from now ...

The numbers would not be threatening if the Muslim-immigrants had a strong desire to assimilate ... Half of French Muslims see their loyalty to Islam as greater than their loyalty to France.

One-third of French Muslims do not object to suicide attacks ... One-third of British Muslim students are in favor of a worldwide caliphate ...

They do not come to integrate into our societies; they come to integrate our society into their Dar al-Islam ..."

Wilders added:

"Much of this street violence ... is directed exclusively against non-Muslims, forcing many native people to leave their neighborhoods, their cities, their countries ...

Muslims are now a swing vote not to be ignored. Mohammed's ... behavior is an example to all Muslims ...

If Mohammed had been a man of peace, let us say like Ghandi and Mother Theresa wrapped in one, there would be no problem ...

Islamic tradition tells us how he fought in battles, how he had his enemies murdered and even had prisoners of war executed. Mohammed himself slaughtered the Jewish tribe of Banu Qurayza ...

Islam means 'submission.' Islam is not compatible with freedom and democracy, because what it strives for is sharia.

If you want to compare Islam to anything, compare it to communism or national-socialism, these are all totalitarian ideologies ..."

Geert Wilders concluded:

"There is a danger greater danger than terrorist attacks, the scenario of America as the last man standing ...

With an Islamic Europe, it would be UP TO AMERICA ALONE to preserve the heritage of ROME, ATHENS and JERUSALEM."

Franklin D. Roosevelt had stated on Labor Day, September 1, 1941:

"Preservation of these rights is vitally important now, not only to us who enjoy them-but to the whole future of Christian civilization."

Winston Churchill addressed Britain's House of Commons, June 18, 1940:

"Upon this battle depends the survival of Christian civilization ...

OIC chief demands international law to criminalize Islamophobia

JEDDAH: Muslim leaders on Thursday demanded the introduction of an international law to criminalize all acts of Islamophobia.

Announcing plans for the celebration of the Organization of Islamic Cooperation's (OIC) 50th anniversary in Jeddah on Monday, its secretary-general called for a global crackdown on individuals or groups responsible for "insulting religions or prophets."

If we fail, then the whole world, including the United States, including all that we have known and cared for, will sink into the abyss of a new Dark Age made more sinister, and perhaps more protracted, by the lights of perverted science."

Though John F. Kennedy was the youngest person "elected" President, it was actually Theodore Roosevelt who was the youngest person to become President.

Roosevelt was 42 years old as Vice-President when President McKinley was assassinated in 1901.

Roosevelt stated in 1909:

"The thought of modern industry in the hands of Christian charity is a dream worth dreaming.

The thought of industry in the hands of paganism is a nightmare beyond imagining. The choice between the two is upon us."

Theodore Roosevelt addressed the American Sociological Congress (Fear God and Take Your Own Part, 1916, p. 70):

"The civilization of Europe, America and Australia exists today at all only because of the victories of civilized man over the enemies of civilization ...

victories stretching through the centuries from Charles Martel in the eighth century and those of John Sobieski in the seventeenth century ...

There are such 'social values' today in Europe, America and Australia only because during those thousand years the Christians of Europe possessed the warlike power to do what the Christians of Asia and Africa had failed to do - that is, to beat back the Moslem invader."

Theodore Roosevelt stated in his Thanksgiving Proclamation, October 24, 1903:

"In NO OTHER PLACE and at NO OTHER TIME has the experiment of government OF the people, BY the people, FOR the people, been tried on so vast a scale as here in our own country ...

Failure would not only be a dreadful thing for us, but a dreadful thing for all mankind ... It would mean loss of hope for all who believe in the power and the righteousness of liberty.

Therefore, in thanking God for the mercies extended to us in the past, WE BESEECH HIM that He MAY NOT WITHHOLD THEM IN THE FUTURE."

On February 9, 1961, President Kennedy remarked at a Breakfast for International Christian Leadership:

"Every President of the United States has placed special reliance upon his faith in God ...

The guiding principle and prayer of this Nation has been,

is now, and shall ever be "IN GOD WE TRUST."

A profound message to pastors is that the most important thing is to bring people to Christ; but the second most important thing is to preserve the freedom to do the most important thing.

President John F. Kennedy worded it this way, February 9, 1961:

"This country was dedicated to ... two propositions.

... The Puritans and the Pilgrims of my own section of New England, the Quakers of Pennsylvania, the Catholics of Maryland, the Presbyterians of North Carolina, the Methodists and Baptists who came later, all shared these two great traditions which, like silver threads, have run through the warp and the woof of American History ...

First, a strong religious conviction, and secondly, a recognition that this conviction could flourish only under a system of freedom."
