

CAFFEINE CONTENT

BY ROAST

Caffeine content varies by roast level. While coffee flavor intensity increases as the roast darkens, caffeine levels are believed to decrease as the roast darkens. However, these estimates do not remain constant and vary based on grind fineness and brewing method used.

