This note card uses heavy weight paper or cardstock and a color printer to print a clever flowerpot card with floral-decorated card to insert in the pot. Simply cut out the pieces, fold the card in half, glue together, and insert note into the flower pot! Quick and easy!

Supplies

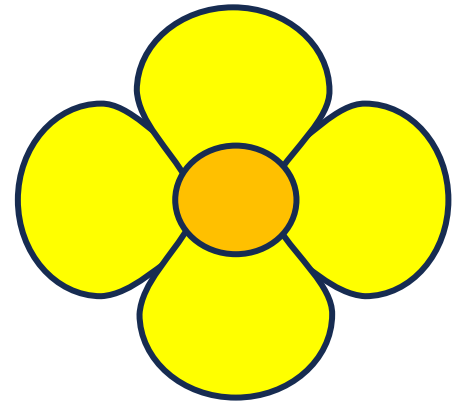

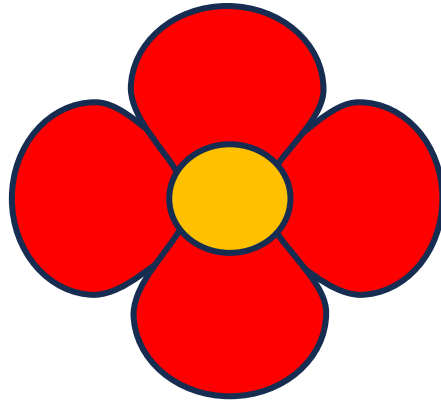

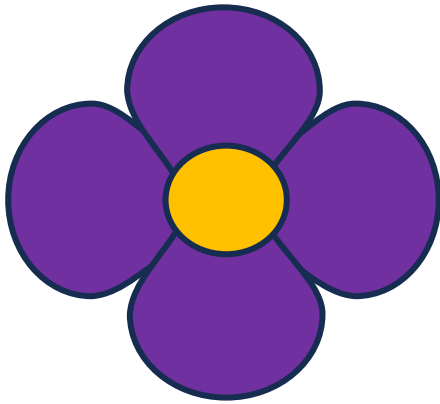

- ✓ Precut cardstock 8 ½" x 11"
- ✓ Color printer
- ✓ Sharp scissors
- ✓ Glue dots OR
- ✓ Gluestick

Instructions

1. Insert heavyweight paper or cardstock into color printer.
2. Follow instructions for paper other than the usual printer paper (i.e., I have to use the manual feed on my printer).
3. Cut out all the pieces.
4. Sign your name to the note card insert and/or write a personal message.
5. Glue one petal of a flower to the left corner of the printed poem note card insert.
6. Glue one petal of a second flower to the right corner of the printed poem note card insert.
7. Run a thin line of glue down the sides of the flower pot only.
8. Insert the floral note card insert into the pot.
9. Decorate the outside of the pot with the third flower or use the Fruits of the Spirit logo side as the front of the pot.

Patience
 By Dana Buck

A seed becomes a seedling
 Then a bud and then a bloom
 Time and patience both endow
 Its beauty and perfume
 A heart is like a garden
 Where small things are planted deep
 With hidden possibilities
 And promises to keep
 As seasons tarry and unfold
 May yielded lives display
 The harvest patience offers us
 A beautiful bouquet
