The Story So far...

In early 2017 a new era began in Hardy Packaging's history. After over 30 years in business a partnership was formed with a local manufacturing firm, & a subsidiary of HPL was established, Hardy Distribution. Since then the service has steadily grown to holding excess of 50 pallets of stock, & sending multiple orders around New Zealand on a daily basis. We now believe the time is right to offer this opportunity to other like minded companies that may require a similar service.
