

T-Cell Balance PX

Immune Support

- Supports a balanced immune system
- Provides protection against liver damage from hepatotoxins and/or oxidation
- Reduces autoimmunity and promotes healthy blood circulation

Support for the immune system

T-Cell Balance Px contains a special assortment of natural compounds created to stabilize the immune system and support healthy liver function.

This formula includes the traditional Chinese antioxidant herb Rehmannia known for its ability to optimize immune function, and promote healthy blood circulation. Rehmannia can also balance leucocytes as well as T and B lymphocyte biosynthesis.

Herbal Foundation of "T-Cell Balance Px"

REHMANNIA

This antioxidant herb reduces fever, promotes blood circulation, and reinforces equilibrium within the immune system via support for T and B lymphocyte biosynthesis.

CORDYCEPS

In addition to displaying anti-oxidant characteristics, Cordyceps also has immune-modulatory and liver-protective actions.

ROSMARINIC ACID

Rosmarinic acid, from the mint family, can balance B and T cell activity.

95% of our herbs and herbal extracts are certified organic or ecologically wildcrafted.
