MESSAGE

I refer to our conversation (Deleveaux/Sink) of today's date with regard to air compressors and their use within the exclusive economic zone of The Bahamas.

As diuscussed, please be informed that it is legal for air compressors to be used for any and all diving purposes with the exception of those relating to fishing or the collection of marine resources.

Should you experience any difficulties relating to your possession or the use of the device while in our waters, please do not hesitate to contact me at the numbers listed below.
