THE CONFECTION: AMELIA ROPE CHOCOLATE

The echoes of the words 'does anyone have any chocolate?' reverberate through the halls of Harper's Bazaar at around 3pm every day. The most satisfying in recent days has been a bar of pale hazelnut and sea salt (Maldon, no less) from boutique chocolatier Amelia Rope. Reminiscent of a scene from Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, we peeled back the gorgeous packaging of brown paper and sea-blue foil to reveal the smooth chocolate textured with nibs of roasted hazelnut. But unlike Charlie, we exercised little self-restraint and the bar was gone within minutes.

Other favourite bars include the citrusy pale lime and sea salt, and dark mandarin, flavoured with mandarin oil.

Amelia Rope chocolate, stocked in Liberty.
