Terms and Conditions:

Angel Maternity allows customers to return or exchange item(s) (except underwear) which is faulty or not fitted. Return/exchange is only available for item(s) still currently available for sale online. Angel Maternity online customers have an extended exchange timeframe of up to 21 days from the date item(s) was received. Please allow up to 10 working days for the refund to appear in your account. Customers are responsible for any cost associated with returning the item(s) to us and any additional postage cost for exchange items. Angel Maternity strongly suggests using a postage bag with tracking. Angel Maternity will not be responsible for any lost parcel sent by customers, which does not have a tracking number. For Australian customers, $8.50 postage fee will be deducted from the refund if the remaining order amount is less than $50 after the return, or if the whole order is returned. Please note that if items from an order are returned in accordance with our returns policy and have been purchased via buy now pay later provider (e.g. Humm, AfterPay), there will be a processing fee deducted from the total refund amount. Read the full terms and conditions on our website.

Please send the parcel with this form to the address below.
