

ROSEBUD 2018

Release date: September 2018

Gabriëlskloof Winery is in the Bot River ward, where prevailing southerly winds from the nearby Atlantic Ocean create a mesoclimate ideally suited to low-yielding vineyards.

Rosebud is the little darling of our Estate Range (which also includes Sauvignon Blanc, The Blend and Syrah). It is a blended Rosè style wine, made with Syrah (58%) and Viognier (42%), both from Gabriëlskloof vines, offering a deliciously moreish perfume thanks to the Viognier, with nice grippy tannins afforded by the Syrah.

Floral and beautifully aromatic, the 2018 Rosebud shows a nicely balanced combination of strawberry, white peach and papaya. The palate is fresh, crisp and dry, making this the perfect light, summertime Rose.

To be enjoyed chilled and perfect as an accompaniment to a variety of lighter dishes.
