'Creating the Future of Dance'

Vision

Honour the Past, Achieve in the Present, Create the Future

Mission Statement

As Australia's national centre for elite vocational classical dance, and the school of The Australian Ballet, we aspire to be at the forefront, internationally, as providers of a unique, professional dance training programme that:

- Produces dancers with a distinctive Australian style
- Balances technique and artistry with educational needs and holistic care
- Trains teachers and develops the artistic leaders of the future
- Advances the art of ballet

Beliefs and Values

Informed by meaningful history and motivated by the exciting possibilities of the future of dance in Australia and abroad, the School is committed to achieving exceptional student outcomes in a unique, nurturing culture that embraces creativity, artistic expression and passion.

Philosophy

The philosophy of the School is to maximise ability; to produce thinking artists who are healthy in body and mind, and students who emerge fully prepared to fulfil their potential as members of The Australian Ballet and other dance companies around the world and as individuals capable of making valuable contributions to society. In fulfilling this, the School's training programme includes world-class health and well-being support and access to academic education. In line with this philosophy, the School endeavours to maintain a balance between affordability and access to ensure that no enrolled student is denied the opportunity to train due to financial constraints.

Great Companies are married to Great Schools

As the school of The Australian Ballet, The Australian Ballet School is the national centre of excellence in classical dance training. The School was founded in 1964 as an essential adjunct to the Company – an integral component of Founding Artistic Director, Dame Peggy van Praagh's vision for dance in Australia. The Australian Ballet School's founding Director, Dame Margaret Scott AC DBE, shaped the School's destiny for the first 26 years and, since her retirement, the School has seen only three other Directors, Gailene Stock AM CBE (1990-1998), Marilyn Rowe AM OBE (1999-2014) and Lisa Pavane (2015-current).

The School and Company share the purpose-built facilities of The Primrose Potter Australian Ballet Centre in Southbank and have always shared the same long-term goal: a unique Australian Ballet with a distinctive style of its own. Nowhere but in the school of a national company can a unique company style be fostered and developed. No other school is better placed to channel the best talent into the national company.

The majority of dancers in The Australian Ballet are graduates of the School, including the current Artistic Director, David McAllister AM. Graduates can also be found as principals and soloists in major companies throughout the world. Such is the standard of excellence that, within six months of graduating, 92% of students gain contracts. This is one of the highest employment rates of any tertiary institution in Australia.

The influence of the School permeates many dance-related areas. For instance, choreographic talent has been nurtured over the years with graduates such as Graeme Murphy AM, Meryl Tankard, Stephen Baynes, Gideon Obarzanek, Leigh Warren, Adrian Burnett and Lucas Jervies all having distinguished international reputations. The creative influence of the School continues today with graduates Tim Harbour, Paul Knobloch, Timothy Brown, Wakako Asano, David Jonathan, Reed Luplau and Tim O'Donnell all establishing their choreographic credentials. The School is also fortunate to have on its staff such respected choreographers as Margaret Wilson and Simon Dow.

The Australian Ballet School Training Programme

Overview

The School has an eight-level vocational dance training programme for students aged 9 and above from Australia and overseas. The programme produces dancers who possess a strong classical technique with great emphasis on artistry, purity of line, coordination and a quality of movement which is free of mannerisms. The School works in close liaison with The Australian Ballet, sharing the purpose-built facilities of The Primrose Potter Australian Ballet Centre in Melbourne. The centre is adjacent to the Arts Centre, integrated into a creative environment in which Australian dance is able to flourish.

National/International Accreditation: Levels 5-8

As a Registered Training Organisation (RTO 3132), The Australian Ballet School offers national qualifications through the Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA) and internationally through the Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas Students (CRICOS 00253A). In Levels 5&6, students study towards the Diploma of Dance – Elite Performance (National course code CUA50113; CRICOS code 089445B). - Levels 5 and 6 students study for the Diploma of Dance - Elite Performance (CUA50113, CRICOS 089445B), combining allied dance subjects and Year 10 and 11 academic studies. (NB: Students joining the School in Level 6, who have previously completed Victorian Certificate of Education (VCE) Dance Units, will be required to participate in Level 6 Dance Perspectives/VCE Dance practical classes and assessments.)
- Level 7 students study for the Advanced Diploma of Dance - Elite Performance (CUA60113, CRICOS 089444C), combining allied dance subjects and Year 12 academic studies (gaining the VCE through VCASS), while developing skills for transition into the dance industry through performance and career management. Students refine and analyse their dance training, with greater emphasis on professional performance and career management.

Accommodation arrangements

Marilyn Rowe House officially opened in January 2016 for the inaugural intake of boarding students from the School's full-time training programme. Marilyn Rowe House, named after former Director Marilyn Rowe AM OBE, is the purpose-built boarding facility of the School. This premier facility, at any one time, is capable of housing up to 38 students and associated support staff. Led by the Head of Boarding, 'the House' enables students at the School to experience the highest levels of pastoral care whilst living in a community based on the needs of dancers.

The School's Boarding Programme reflects the vision, culture and character of the School, being informed by the School's extensive history energized by creativity, artistic expression and passion. Unique programmes and exciting approaches to pastoral and residential care devoted to nurturing the whole person — mind, body and spirit — foster distinctive signature experiences that support the growth of young dancers into mature, professional performers. The experience of an enriched environment with opportunities for self-discovery, leadership and success affords students every chance of emerging as individuals capable of making valuable contributions to society.

- Full-time international students must be accommodated in the Student Residence unless accommodated with, and fully supervised by, a parent/legal custodian or a blood-relative.

The Dancers Company – Regional Touring Company

The Dancers Company was formed in 1980 and is an integrated part of The Australian Ballet under the direction of its Ballet Master and Regional Touring Associate. Taking the highest quality dance productions to regional areas around Australia, The Dancers Company provides invaluable professional performing experience to Australian Ballet School students and is an important component of preparation for the dance profession.

Students in Level 8 who meet the artistic and technical standards and demonstrate the attitude and maturity required by The Australian Ballet form the body of The Dancers Company. All casting for The Dancers Company productions is subject to approval by the Artistic Director, Ballet Master and Regional Touring Associate of The Australian Ballet in consultation with the Director of the School.

Intra/Interstate & International Training Programme (ITP)

The ITP provides training opportunities at Levels 1-3 for gifted Intra/interstate and international students. Entry is by audition only, with students initially selected for a one-year enrolment period. ITPs benefit from working in a class of high-aptitude students and also gain an understanding of the School's training programme. ITPs from overseas who wish to participate in ITP activities may enter Australia on a Tourist Visa.

Invitees

The Invitee programme provides limited opportunity to access the School's training programme for selected students, aged 14/15 years. Invitee students are students who have been invited and offered access to The Australian Ballet School Training Programme at Level 4 or above and are, therefore, visitors of the Full-Time Programme. Entry is by invitation only for a one year enrolment period. Invitees from overseas who are invited into this programme may enter Australia for short-stay on a Tourist Visa.

Future Employment Prospects

All Level 7 and Level 8 students complete their Curricula Vitae in Career Management classes and are responsible for distributing them to prospective employers. While the School is unable to guarantee employment for graduates, any audition information notified to the School is posted on the Student Notice Board and the School offers students advice on opportunities available to audition for Australian, Asian, European and North American companies. Students are encouraged throughout Level 7 and Level 8 to discuss career plans and auditions opportunities with the Director.

At present, graduates are members of over 70 companies around the world. While The Australian Ballet is the parent company of the School, there is no rite of passage from School to Company. Company contracts offered each year are limited to places available and are offered only at the discretion of the Artistic Director of The Australian Ballet.

Overseas Students

Overseas students enrolled in the Diploma of Dance (a two-year course), Advanced Diploma (a one-year course) or the Graduate Diploma of Classical Ballet (a one-year course) must leave Australia at the end of their course at the School, unless a further student visa has been successfully attained, and no later than the date stated on their student visas.

At the completion of Level 8, any offer of a contract to an overseas student by any Australian dance company is conditional on the appointment being approved by (a) the Media, Entertainment and Arts Alliance (the union body of the dance industry) and (b) the Department of Immigration and Border Protection (who have to approve a work visa). In the past, few contracts with Australian dance companies have been approved for overseas graduates, with negotiations often taking at least 12 months after graduation.

About Melbourne

Melbourne is the capital of the state of Victoria and, with a population of approximately 3.2 million, is Australia's second largest city. Situated on the southeast edge of Australia, Melbourne has a temperate climate. Rainfall is fairly evenly spread throughout the year and the weather is mostly moderate.

Seasons and climate

Despite its small size, the Victorian climate varies across the state. The north is much drier and warmer weather than the south. Australia's seasons are the reverse of those in the northern hemisphere. The climate can be characterised as warm to hot in summer

The public transport system is known as Public Transport Victoria (PTV) and you can change from tram to train to bus all on one myki travel card. mykis can be purchased at newsagencies, 7-Eleven convenience stores and major train stations. A myki account can be opened and passengers can swipe their card on all trams and buses and when entering and exiting train stations. Generally, the system operates between 5.00am – midnight Monday to Saturday, and 8.00am – 11.00pm on Sundays.
