ABSOLUTE PERFECTION

Fashion site The SIL, created by Natalie Bloomingdale, stocks only limited-edition or one-of-a-kind fashion that ooze style, craftsmanship, and originality — and all exclusive to the site. Now, The SIL has collaborated on a fashion capsule with The Future Perfect, a rarified online gallery of furnishings and objects. Eight of The SIL's designers contributed original pieces based on founder of The Future

Perfect David Alhadeff's three-word creative brief: "The Future Perfect." The 10 resulting treasures — including a pair of hand-blown glass and freshwater-pearl earrings by Devon Pavlovits, and handbags by Scott Nelson fashioned in Kvadrat/Raf Simons mohair and bouclé — were photographed at Casa Perfect, the former home of Elvis Presley. Natalie Bloomingdale and The SIL will be in Houston November 20th and 21st, at Paloma & Co., 2705 Bammel Lane. shopthesil.com. Lisa Collins Shaddock
