Over 50 ways to share joy all year long

Love makes a world of difference
Love makes a world of difference

Your love and kindness can transform lives. When you share gifts from our catalogue with friends and family, the impact goes beyond one child, one family or even one community. Lasting change spreads out to the whole world—and the people who need it most.

What a meaningful way to celebrate the birth of Jesus, or any special occasion.

Thank you for your compassion and generosity. We know one gift, wrapped up in your love, really does make a world of difference.

Wishing peace for you and your family,

Michael Messenger
President, World Vision Canada

How to give life-changing gifts

Choose gifts like animals and medicines.

Order at worldvision.ca/gifts call 1.800.844.7993 or use the order form on p.12.

Honour loved ones with a gift in their name and send them a FREE personalized greeting card or e-card.

Give families a path to a better life.

Our promise to you

We’re committed to honouring your generosity and ensuring the gift you selected gets to a community in need. Only in exceptional circumstances, such as an emergency, might the donation be used for a similar or more urgent need. The suggested donation amounts shown for each item in the Gift Catalogue are based on periodic surveys of the countries you help us serve and are pooled together to provide the selected item.

Thank you for caring for children and families around the world.

Milk, eggs and income

Goats and chickens are fun to give! We’ve paired our most popular animals, so you can give struggling families meaningful gifts that will bring long-term change.

Livestock combo:
Goats, hens and roosters $150 (3319)
2 hens and a rooster $50 (1552)

When you give to the Farm Animal Fund, donations are pooled together to provide animals such as cows, piglets, sheep and chickens that provide families with improved nutrition and increased income.

Farm animal fund $100 (5587)
$60 (5645)

What’s so special about our animals?

When you give livestock through World Vision, it’s part of a greater community development program. Animals are purchased locally and distributed to families in need along with feed, training and other support. These animals produce milk, eggs—and lasting changes. In addition, World Vision provides families with business guidance and skills that help build strong communities, giving families a sustainable path to a new life.

When you select an item from the Gift Catalogue, your donation will be used to support World Vision projects in developing countries. Suggested donation amounts for the items are calculated at the time of planning and vary from country to country. Whenever possible, items or services will be procured locally and provided to a child or family in need as part of a project in their community. Many of the featured items are part of larger World Vision development programs that help entire communities to overcome poverty and achieve self-reliance. Debbie’s family received five goats—one male and four females. Crossbreeding produced bigger goats and more income to help her family.

Glorious goodness of goats

Goats are hearty and adorable animals. Their milk is rich in protein, calcium and other nutrients, and is a great benefit to children in need. A goat can provide fertilizer to grow crops, hundreds of litres of milk, cheese and even the start of a whole herd. Now that’s great giving!

Chickens help children soar

The crack of an egg. The first tiny chirp of a newborn chick. These small delights bring joy to children and families who receive hens and a rooster. Better yet, these wonderful birds provide an ongoing source of income, food rich in protein, vitamins and nutrients, and health for growing girls and boys—so their dreams can take flight.

Chickens are just chickens, right?

Maybe so. But when you give chickens or any other animals from the World Vision Gift Catalogue, you help entire communities thrive. Your hens and roosters are purchased locally. They’re then delivered to a family, along with feed, training and other support to ensure the birds multiply into a whole flock, just chickens! More like super chickens to the rescue.

The buzz about bees

Bees are a smart gift and a great small business opportunity. Equipped with kits and hives, beekeepers can produce up to 50 kilos of honey a year to sell or trade. Sweet!

- Beehives: $100 (1800)
- Beekeeping kits: $60 (1792)

Cow: $600 (1602)
Share of a cow: $200 (3590)

Warm and woolly alpacas

These furry beauties have the world’s highest-valued wool and produce up to 4 kilograms a year. That’s plenty of clothing, blankets and rugs for families to weave, wear and sell.

- Alpacas: $250 (2196)

Beehives: $100 (1800)
Beekeeping kits: $60 (1792)

Count on sheep

Protein-rich milk. Warm wool for weaving. Two to three lambs a year. It’s easy to see why healthy sheep are a blessing for families in need.

- 2 sheep: $300 (3418)
- Sheep: $150 (1594)

Ultimate milk machine

Few things can transform a family’s future like the incredible bounty of a cow. Her milk is a superfood for hungry children and her calves can become a herd that brings a lifetime of prosperity. We’re over the moon for this gift.

Cow: $600 (1602)
Share of a cow: $200 (3590)

Fill a stable

Break the cycle of poverty when you help fill a stable with animals like milk-producing goats and cows, woolly sheep, prolifically breeding pigs and chickens or ducks for eggs. What an ideal way to join with friends, family or co-workers and give a group gift.

- Help fill a stable: $1,200 (1404)
- Share of a cow: $200 (3590)

Do even greater good

Your love spreads even further when you give gifts that multiply in value.

- 8x Mum and baby care (See p. 23)
- 5x Feed 2 hungry families (See p. 14)
- 2x Stock a medical clinic (See p. 23)
